Lack of signposts means businesses are losing out

TOURISM along the Jurassic Coast continues to take a hit as Dorset County Council put any decision to signpost the route on hold until the New Year.

Traffic between Weymouth and Bridport is signposted onto the A35, bypassing the B3157 coast road, and businesses fear hundreds of jobs are at risk and thousands of tourists

by Tom Glover

are missing out on visiting the Heritage coast because of this.

Signs for the route in Weymouth were removed following the opening of the Chickerell Link Road in 2006.

Despite the effect on businesses on the route and years of campaigning to see the signs re-instated, Dorset County Council has put any decision about signage on hold until January 2011.

Abbotsbury Tourism, which runs the village's swannery, sub-tropical gardens and children's farm, believes that the council, at the very least, should use brown tourism route signage to advertise the road.

General manager John Hewson said: "All business on the B3157 are concerned about the road signage. It is very important for tourism and all the businesses that are on that road."

"I think the road should be advertised as a gateway to the Jurassic coast and the council should be using the tools available to them to do that."

"It's a debate we will be having with them over the coming months or even years - hopefully it won't last that long."

"There are 45 businesses in Abbotsbury that are spin offs from the swannery, the gardens and the children's farm and they survive due to the tourism that brings. You are looking at 200 plus jobs in Abbotsbury alone and if you then look at all the businesses on the route you are talking a major economic drive which is potentially being ignored and denied by the council."

Park Manager of the West Fleet Holiday Park, Rocky Dibden, said that the lack of signposting not only discouraged new visitors but also confused many tourists who could not find businesses on the coast road.

"The signage is totally inappropriate. Historically we would direct people to follow signs from Bridport but anyone who comes into Weymouth now will be sent into Dorchester if they do that," she said.

"It's caused people a lot of unnecessary journeys and we have had to change all our publications because of it but many guide books still direct people that way and guide books can be around for years.

"There is no reason why they couldn't put light vehicles only on the sign. Not signposting the road at all is certainly detrimental to any business operating on that route."

Chairman of Punccknowle and Swyre Parish Council, Tony Edwards, contacted Dorset County Council two years ago to discuss the problem and was told the issue would be put on hold until after completion of the Weymouth relief road.

"The consequence of that is that it might take away heavy traffic and through traffic but it also takes away tourists from an area which thrives on visitors and that has its knock on effect on the local economy and businesses where there is a noticeable diminishing on visitors to the community."

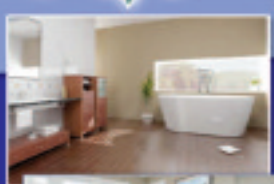

"This is a beautiful area, it's highly prized and we are not so isolated ourselves as to think we don't want people to share it," he said.

Dorset County Council traffic manager, Tim Westwood, said: "We are currently considering the tourist signing at each end of the B3157 incorporating the 'scenic route' proposal and other specific requests from holiday parks. The proposals will be discussed with the various tourist associations as soon as some sign layouts are drawn up and costed. This is not expected to happen until early in January."

JENNA Rogers, 23, has recently graduated from Bournemouth University with a degree in Hospitality Business Development.

Jenna has spent her working life in the hospitality industry, working weekends and summer holidays at her mum's establishment, Down House Farm Café, as well as working various part time jobs in other local pubs and restaurants. During her degree Jenna also spent a yearlong work placement at a four star hotel in Wellington, New Zealand.

In her spare time Jenna is a keen runner, competing for Dorset at the English National Cross Country Championships, and representing Colfox School throughout her teenage years.

Having completed two half marathons, Jen is now training for "The Grizzly" in March, and for the London marathon in April 2011.

■ WHAT do you like most about Bridport?

I love the arts, music and cultural scene that has developed in Bridport over the past few years. Several venues are excellent at supporting local acts of all varieties (music, performing arts etc), but they have also managed to attract some well known names to the area, which I think is incredibly good for such a small town. I also love the familiarity of small town life, the friendliness of people and the small independent stores selling quirky products.

■ WHAT would you like to change?

When I was 18 there were a few places my friends and I could go for a night out in Bridport on a Friday and Saturday Night, but since then the night life has deteriorated for the younger generation with places closing down or age restrictions. It is fine for me now I am older, but I see my friends' younger siblings having to travel to Weymouth and even Yeovil for nights out as there is nowhere for them to go in their hometown. Surely it would be better for their money to stay being injected back into the town by opening up somewhere for them to go? It would also reduce the number of younger people getting drunk on the streets.

■ WHERE do you see yourself in five years time?

Ideally, having worked my way up to a managerial position in a global chain of hotels. Many global chains offer fantastic training and development programmes, and support the transfer of employees within the company to other properties worldwide.

■ WHAT from New Zealand culture would you like to see in England?

CONTACT OUR EDITORIAL TEAM

pemedi@pemedi.co.uk
www.viewfromonline.co.uk

The laid back, friendly lifestyle that New Zealanders adopt. They are very social people. I also loved how the Maori culture still has a big presence within the country, and I think it would be nice to see a bit more English tradition encouraged here. New Zealand also promotes their country to their people, and it's common for 'Kiwi's' to travel around just as much as tourists. I think it should be made more affordable to travel around this country, as I think England has so much to offer.

■ WHAT is the best part about working in hospital-ity?

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

Definitely meeting so many diverse and interesting people of different ages from different backgrounds and cultures. It makes every day different from the next; every day brings new challenges, and I find I am constantly learning. Also, the diversity of the industry and the opportunity to work in many different roles in a variety of forms globally.

■ IF you had a friend visit Bridport for one day, where would you take them?

I would start in the morning by taking them for a walk up to Thornecombe Beacon as I think it holds one of the finest views both out to sea, on a clear day you can see Lyme Bay from Start Point to Portland Bill, and back inland from Golden Cap, past Colmers Hill, over Bridport, and out to Eggardon. I would then take them for a hearty lunch in a village pub garden. Then, if it's out of season, I would take them over to Lyme Regis for a stroll around the Cobb, and play some crazy golf in the gardens.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, CD you listened to and film you watched?

Stolen by Lesley Pearce - a very bizarre story which kept me gripped - not my usual choice of book to read, but someone gave it to me on the train. The last CD I listened to was a compilation a friend made for me, named 'Uni days' containing all the songs that reminded me most of the four years we spent at uni. The last film I watched was Planet of the Apes - one film I think they did the remake of very well.

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party and why?

Jo Brand because I think she is hilarious. Kevin McCloud because I think he would be interesting to talk to, and I fancy him a little bit. Fearne Cotton because I think she is great and quirky.

Buffaloes donate tri-walker to Red Cross

THE Star of Dorset Lodge of the Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes made a generous donation to the Red Cross this week.

The Worthy Primo of the Star of Dorset Lodge, Vic Petty, made the donation of a tri-walker, which used to be owned by his mother-in-law.

The tri-walker was presented to Bridport Red Cross volunteer Marjorie Lathey who runs the weekly medical equipment load service in the town.

Mrs Lathey said: "This will be a great help to somebody unable to walk without the aid of support."

"I'd like to say thank you very much indeed to the buffaloes for this generous donation, this will be vital to somebody who needs it."

The Red Cross Medical Equipment Service runs from the Bridport Youth Centre every Tuesday from 11am-3pm.

If you would like to help the Red Cross in anyway then call 08453 313331.

Chance to walk the relief road

A UNIQUE opportunity to walk along Weymouth's new relief road is being offered to members of the public.

The charity event is the only legitimate opportunity residents will have to walk part of a six kilometre stretch of the north section before it is opened to traffic.

Organisers Weldmar Hospicecare Trust are

by Paul Crompton

inviting walkers and dog owners of all ages to join them on Sunday, December 5th.

The walk will start from 11am from the new Ridgeway Bridge at Broadmayne Road before following the new bridleway to Icen Lane where there will be a turning point to walk back up to the bridge on the northern section of the new relief road.

Ridgeway Bridge can be accessed from Broadmayne Road, however organisers urge motorists to park responsibly on this road.

A park and ride facility will be available from Dorchester Football Club where walkers can register from 9.30am.

Refreshments will be available at the end of the walk at Dorchester Football Club.

Registration fees are: under 5 year-olds free, under 16 year-olds £5 and adults £10 which will include a commemorative medal for the over 5 year-olds. Children under 16 years-old must be accompanied by a registered adult walker.

Walkers can raise money for Weldmar or another charity of their choice, although they must contact their chosen charity themselves for sponsor forms.

Anyone wishing to volunteer to help with registration and parking control should contact Sue Leighton 01305 215320, or e-mail sue.leighton@weld-hospice.org.uk

To download a registration form log onto www.weld-hospice.org.uk/reliefroad

Weldmar Hospicecare Trust would like to express their sincere thanks to Skanska, Dorset County Council and Dorchester Football Club for their support of this event.

Jobshop helps students and employers

A SCHEME to get young people into work has been given the thumbs up by Weymouth businesses eager to fill part-time posts.

Weymouth College's JobShop allows businesses to target students needing part time work to fund themselves during their courses.

Upwey's gastro pub, The Riverhouse Inn was the latest business to benefit from the scheme when they promoted a part-time time vacancy through the free JobShop website.

First year A-Level student Laura Brown is now in part-time work as she studies Law, Psychology, Sociology and Government & Politics at Weymouth College.

It is hoped that Laura will remain in the position whilst she is at college and possibly during the holidays.

The Riverhouse Inn's Lorraine D'Agostino: "I would definitely use

■ FIRST year A Level Weymouth College student Laura Brown hard at work after securing a part-time job through the colleges Jobshop scheme.

this service again; I have already recommended the JobShop to other businesses and I am happy to do so."

"I am only sorry that for the last 16 years that we have been in business Weymouth College's JobShop has not been available."

Weymouth College launched the online JobShop to help local businesses find studentsto fill their part-time vacancies by advertising their part-time job opportunities.

Careers & Higher Education Advisor, Andy Watson said: "We have local employers calling us all the time asking if we have students suitable for their part-time vacancies but it was always difficult to let every student know about what was on offer. Now all employers have to do is sign up to the Job-

Shop, register the opportunity and every student who is registered with the JobShop will have the option to apply."

From May 2011, the JobShop will also be accepting full-time vacancies for students who have completed their studies.

Employers can register for free now by visiting: www.weymouth.ac.uk/jobshop

Skaters flock back to new park

by Paul Crompton

JUST 18 months after Portland's skate park was demolished amid safety fears, a new state of the art £200,000 facility has been officially opened.

Work on the community facility, led by Portland Skate Park Users Group, was started at the beginning of this year with members conducting talks with local skaters and development companies.

By working with skate park developers Freestyle the initial design ideas were adapted to provide the maximum skate park provision within the budget.

The old skate park opposite the Masonic Car Park was closed last year after skateboarders complained of crumbling, rusty metal ramps, despite the £20,000 facility being just three years old.

The borough's skaters and BMXers joined in with celebrations when a host of activities took place to mark the occasion, including demonstrations, competitions, music and refreshments.

The skate park project was funded as part of the South West Regional Development Agency sale agreement on Officers Field.

John Ray, Estates Consultant at the RDA said that by working in partnership with many local organisations, including Osprey Quay, Portland Community Partnership and Weymouth & Portland Borough Council's Parks Section, it was reassuring to see how the sale of Officers Field would directly benefit the local community.

He added: "Prior to the official opening there have already been a number of skaters using the park and this not only confirms the need for such a facility but also that the funding available has been very well invested."

"My special thanks go to Portland Skate Park Users Group, Jim Blake, Steve Jeffrey and the youngsters who offered up their time to help bring design thoughts together, and assist with physical work on the park."

Councillor Roger Allen, Brief Holder for Culture, Tourism and Community Facilities said: "The new skate park is a facility that young people in our community have not only asked for but have been involved in from the beginning of the project. The new park will create a meeting place where young people from all over the borough can get together to enjoy many hours of free activity and it is therefore a true credit to all those who have been involved in providing, what will be, a popular and well used amenity."

A ROSPA Safety Inspection of the new Portland skate park has passed with flying colours and has received one of the lowest scores in the country for this type of facility as it met or exceeded all the safety criteria.

The new Portland Skate Park was officially opened by Weymouth & Portland Mayor, Councillor Paul Kimber on Saturday, November 13th.

Come dine with a difference

SOPHIE Collins, who is a member of local animal welfare group Compassionate Dorset hosted a TV style Come Dine With Me dinner for a group of friends in Weymouth to celebrate Bake with Compassion Week.

Sophie prepared a Mexican themed dinner party, using high welfare meat and dairy, with guests voting for how good they thought the meal was and donating money to the charity.

Sophie, who recently graduated with an MSc in Applied Animal Behaviour and Animal Welfare, said: "I was really excited about hosting a Come Dine With Me evening during Bake With Compassion Week. I felt it was an excellent way of raising money for Compassion in World Farming and also an ideal opportunity to inform my friends and family about how to cook compassionately."

"I ensured that I only used organic or free-range animal products in my menu and gave my guests good food shopping guides so that they would be better able to locate higher welfare produce when out shopping. I'm pleased to say that the evening was a great success, and I'm very grateful to my guests for their generous donations. Compassion in World Farming is a charity that is very close to my heart, and I very much enjoyed spreading the word about the importance of farm animal welfare."

More views from 1950s Weymouth

■ ST THOMAS Street

AS PROMISED in last week's edition of the View from Weymouth & Portland we are printing a further selection from the fascinating collection of some 15,000 photographic negatives produced by photographer Graham Herbert in the 1950s.

Mr Herbert's widow Mollie donated the collection to Weymouth Library after his death in 1983.

Many of the negatives had deteriorated badly, suffering from 'vinegar syndrome' (the release of acetic acid, so called because of the strong vinegar-like smell).

The Dorset History Centre conservators and reprographics staff have worked painstakingly to digitise and index the collection so it can be made available for viewing.

The original negatives are now kept in environmentally controlled conditions to reduce further deterioration and the View was allowed access to the collection.

Dorset History Centre Opening is located on Bridport Road, Dorchester and is open Tuesday - Friday 9am - 5pm, Saturday 9am - 4.30pm. On Mondays they run volunteer activities, visits by prearranged groups and other organised events. Telephone 01305 250550 or email archives@dorsetcc.gov.uk for more information.

THE DAY THE RITZ BURNED DOWN: In 1954 the Ritz theatre caught fire. The blaze was thought to have been caused by a painter and decorator's blow lamp while paint stripping a window frame. The building was completely destroyed and was replaced in 1960 by the Pavilion, which has just celebrated its 50th anniversary.

Have your say on events

RESIDENTS have until tomorrow (Friday) to complete a survey voicing their views and opinions on Weymouth and Portland's future festivals and events programme.

The survey includes a broad range of issues from the economy, education and equality to licensing, road closures and event parking.

The council wants to incorporate public feedback into its official events policy for the next five years and beyond.

Each year the borough hosts more than 200 events, including veterans, kites, fireworks, sports championships, parks and a diverse range of community and charity based events.

Cultural, tourism and community facilities spokesman Councillor Roger Allen said: "The borough's festival and events programme is a constant reminder of the enduring spirit of the borough and it is also a fabulous success for the community and visitor economy."

"Each event demonstrates the great passion and energy of a vibrant team of volunteers, organisations and business based throughout the communities of Weymouth and Portland."

"This consultation survey is a great way for residents to put forward their views and feedback regarding the future of festivals and events in the borough. I encourage everyone to have their say."

People can complete the survey which is available on-line at www.visitweymouth.co.uk or they can contact the events team on 01305 838558. Surveys should be returned by 5pm tomorrow to Events Section, Weymouth and Portland Borough Council, North Quay, Weymouth, Dorset, DT4 8TA.

Funds for leisure centre

PORTLAND'S Osprey Leisure Centre is to host a charity quiz night on Saturday, November 27th.

The event, which starts at 7.30pm in the main hall, will help raise funds for improved access for the community and much needed equipment to encourage increased participation by Portland and Weymouth residents.

The quiz will be run by members of the community who currently use the facilities and hope to attract others to the centre who may never have experienced the activities on offer at their local leisure centre.

Entry costs £25 for up to 5 people in a team which includes food and entrants will be quizzed over 10 rounds with an opportunity to win prizes should they defeat other challengers.

Osprey Leisure Centre is run by a charity and organisers said that the more public use Osprey gets then the better it will be in the long term as all funding gets ploughed back into the facilities for community benefit.

Anyone wishing to enter a team can call the centre on 01305-824378 for additional details and to obtain an entry form.

Toe nail clipping

AGE Concern Dorchester has been offered a room at the Littlemoor Health Centre in Weymouth for a toe nail cutting clinic.

The service will be for people over 50 and nail cutting will cost £9 with clients buying their equipment from Age Concern on their first visit for £11.

The service, which is not available for diabetics or those on steroids or warfarin, has been set up to help those who are paying more than £20 for private treatment.

Purbeck nail cutting co-ordinator Susan Schembri said: "Our service is non-profit making and is aimed at simple toe nail cutting only."

"Good foot care is important as we get older and often people don't think about it until discomfort and problems begin."

People who would like more information or who wish to book an appointment can call her on 07971-338120 or Age Concern Dorchester on 01305-269444.

Fossil walk

A CHANCE to prospect for fossils at Pirates Cove on the Fleet is on offer through the Chesil Beach Centre.

The December 4th event with a guide will explore the foreshore as the tide falls to turn up fossils with sea urchins a speciality.

Those interested should meet at Camp Road, Wyke Regis at 10am. The cost is £3 for adults and £2 for children.

More information is available from the Centre on 01305-760579 or on their website at www.chesil-beach.org.

■ PUMPKIN WINNERS: Pupils from Southwell Primary School recycled the most pumpkins in a competition organised by Weymouth and Portland Borough Council LOCAL schools took part in a pumpkin recycling competition organised by Weymouth and Portland Borough Council's Waste Management Team.

Special assemblies were held at participating schools to promote the benefits of using brown bins for composting their waste both at home and at school, and children were challenged to bring in their old pumpkins after Halloween.

A total of 194 pumpkins, weighing well over half a ton, were collected from local schools, saving a massive 600kg of waste from landfill.

Material collected from brown bins is taken to Eco Composting near Hurn Airport to be made into soil improver, saving it from ending up in landfill sites where it would produce the potent greenhouse gas, methane.

The winning schools received garden centre vouchers to help towards improving and maintaining their school grounds. Individual prizes were also to given for some of the impressive carvings.

In first place was Southwell Primary School, who received a £50 garden voucher (87 pumpkins brought in by 43 per cent of pupils).

In second place was Southill Primary School, receiving a £30 voucher (49 pumpkins brought in by 24 per cent of pupils) and in third place was Beechcroft Primary School - £20 voucher (33 pumpkins).

Councillor Brendan Webster, Brief Holder for Environment & Sustainability said: "It is brilliant that children in schools are being encouraged to recycle and are rewarded for their efforts."

"The lessons and habits learned today will ensure a better environment for everyone's future."

"But", he added, "pumpkins are also food and very good to eat: I really enjoy pumpkin soup and in curried or roasted form, but I am not so keen on the pumpkin pie that the Americans love. Perhaps children and their families might like to try them. We need to reduce food waste too."

Residents who do not have a brown bin and would like one, or would like advice on how to use theirs can contact the Waste Management Team on 01305 838000 or visit www.weymouth.gov.uk for more information.

Dorset deli market comes to Portland

THE BOAT That Rocks bar and restaurant, situated at Portland Marina will be hosting the first ever Dorset Deli Market on Saturday, November 27th.

Anyone who is a lover of great foods is invited to go along and make the most of the Dorset Deli Market which will include an excellent array of tempting treats with something for everyone - all ages and all pockets.

It is a free of charge event and there is also free parking.

Says Linda Roduner, manager of The Boat That Rocks, "We already have a large number of exhibitors signed up who will be offering a range of delicacies, from our local suppliers and Dorset farmers."

"There will be a fabulous selection of fresh seafood, meats, chocolates, cheeses, jams and chutneys, cakes, vegetables and anything else you can think of to create a stunning menu."

The events runs from 10am to 4pm.

APPROVED INSTALLER

President of the Society of Dorset Men to retire

A WEYMOUTH man who once held the post of Lord Mayor of London has announced he will retire as President of the Society of Dorset Men.

Sir Anthony Jolliffe GBE DL DSc has announced that he will retire, after 28 years, at the society's annual meeting next April.

A number of people took the opportunity to praise the man said to have "transformed the Society of Dorset Men into a very successful organisation" during the annual county dinner, held at Sherborne School.

The dinner began with the traditional well-wishing message from

The Queen, before Sir Antony told 187 members of the society: "I've now been President for 28 years and I have decided this is my last year."

"This is a great society, one of the very best county societies in the country and I will continue to give it my full support."

SODM Chairman Stuart Adam said: "You [Sir Anthony], my father Roy Adam and Gordon Hine have transformed the Society of Dorset Men into a very successful organisation."

"We thank you sincerely for your hard work and commitment to our society, you will be sorely missed as our President."

Sir Anthony then presented the Bryan Challis Cup for recruiting most members to Chairman Stuart Adam and the Hambro Golf Cup to Secretary Hayne Russell.

The President closed the evening by thanking Stuart Adam for taking on the chairman's mantle from his father. He said: "What a fantastic evening, and we are grateful to Hayne and Pat Russell for all their sustained hard work on organising this and other society functions."

Master of Ceremonies Colin Fry, from Lyme Regis, donated his fee to the Youth Cancer Trust.

■ PORTLAND Singers join with the Holzwickede choir

Choir enjoys twinning hospitality

PORTLAND Singers have returned from a very successful four-day twinning trip to Holzwickede in Germany.

Their hosts took them sightseeing and provided various social activities while the choir from Portland sang three items, taking part in the Sunday morning church service where the Reverend David Plumb from Weymouth Bay Methodist Church was the preacher.

Portland Singers will be holding a concert of Christmas music on Friday, December 17th at Weymouth Bay Methodist Church at 7.30pm as well as doing a concert in aid of Fleet Church on Friday, 10th December at 7.30pm. This will take place at Ponderosa.

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

Is there a road kill solution?

YOU rarely see wildlife as you drive along and it may be because many animals are lying dead in the gutter.

On a recent trip from Weymouth to Taunton the grim tally began to mount within a mile of home until it reached levels which were quite macabre.

I counted more than a dozen dead badgers which were kept company by an incredible range of creatures from pheasants, crows and hedgehogs to rabbits, foxes and squirrels.

Just to round it all off we were delayed on the way back by a large number of blue lights round an accident which seemed to indicate that perhaps a few humans had been added to the toll as well.

Then, on arriving back in Weymouth, I saw the remains of three gulls on Dorchester Road within the space of half a mile.

Don't know what the solution is or even if there is one.

Take your litter home - to yours - not mine

AS Victor Meldrew would have said, I just don't believe it. I had planned on regaling you all closer to the New Year with annual rubbish figures for litter dumped in my front garden, but these past few days have proved the last straw.

Donations have ranged from the inevitable sweet and crisp wrappers to an astonishing collection of booze bottles and take-away trays.

A quick phone call to the council reassured me that they hadn't listed my property as a handy extension to Lodmoor tip, so what the hell is going on?

So far this year I've had the dubious privilege of having to pick up more than 500 items from in front of my house at the rough rate of ten per week and believe you me there have been some pearls.

In the name of sanity what are people doing walking the streets carrying a stabilising bar from a washing machine never mind dumping it in my garden?

And what about How to Look after your Hamster, an extremely interesting book I'm sure but hardly reason to tear it in half and dump it in my garden!

Then we've had barrowloads of newspaper sheets, pieces of cardboard, polystyrene, old pens, ice lolly wrappers, car park tickets, half-eaten bags of chips, cigarette packets by the battalion, beer cans, empty cigarette lighters and even a used lipstick holder.

You never find a discarded £20 note, do you, and I'm sure that as the festive season draws closer, I can look forward to offerings up to and probably including discarded fast food partridge leg bones and the odd sticky but empty Christmas pudding wrapper.

I bet it was a flytipper who said it is better to give than to receive.

Cuts or no cuts, some people still need help

SHE was absolutely furious and heaped abuse on the object of her scorn.

The tirade continued all the way down the pavement towards me in Weymouth town centre without once letting up long enough for her victim to get a word in by way of reply.

Even if she had stopped her criticism there would still have been no reply because this poor woman was talking to a wall.

I'm sure it was a particularly evil wall, but it doesn't get away from the fact that the number of people with mental health problems is growing.

Local and county councils are desperately trying to trim their budgets to survive ahead of the spring financial debates, so let's all hope that one of the things to be cut back isn't facilities for these people. There are enough people talking to walls without sending them to one as well.

Just call your friendly local neighbourhood witch

WITCHES are alive and well and living on Portland.

It is amazing what you can stumble across on the internet as I found out while trying to track down the origins of a particular herb.

Google swiftly answered my query but what also caught my eye was an offering lower down the page from a self-proclaimed witch living on Portland.

She was quick to set her stall out that she was not some crone crouched over a cauldron stirring away at eye of newt and toe of frog.

Far from it for this was a respectable witch delving into potions made from herbs.

She said she was not in to mainstream spell casting but was not averse to a ritual here or there.

Well that's all right then, although it would perhaps have been more useful to the community as a whole if she was able to come up with a few powerful examples of magic.

Think of the unbounded joy if she could complete all Weymouth's roadworks with a simple wave of her wand or whatever she uses.

Then perhaps she could deal with all those unwanted cheerful phone calls from double glazing salesmen, out of tune 2am singing drunks and drivers who force their way out in front of you and have the gall to give you a little wave while doing so.

The list is endless but now, perhaps, we can shorten it a bit with a simple call to our friendly neighbourhood witch.

■ CINDY GRAY receives the Issacs trophy at the Cove Sailing Club annual dinner from Mr Issacs daughter.

Sailing club dinner and prize giving

THE Castle Cove Sailing Club Dinner was held at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy (WPNSA) for the second year.

The prize giving included Cindy Gray being awarded the Isaacs Trophy as winner of the 2010 Ladies Sailing Prize.

The prize was presented by Mr Isaac's daughter in remembrance of her father Joe, a long standing and esteemed member of Castle Cove Sailing Club.

Club member Hazel Shaw and mother of bronze medallist windsurfer, Bryony Shaw who attended the dinner dance, said: "Both sailors and windsurfers alike flock to Portland Harbour to enjoy this unique setting and it is positive that there are a variety of sailing club and sports venues in this area where the amateur and professional water sports enthusiast can get afloat.

"We feel that Castle Cove Sailing Club has a strong heritage with the Olympic scene and it is inspiring to have the 2012 sailing venue so close with ideal surroundings for our annual prize giving."

Getting it right for people in need

NHS Dorset has signed up to Mencap's Getting it Right charter to help ensure that people with a learning disability get the healthcare they have a right to.

Getting it Right calls on health professionals to commit to a charter that will help make real changes and save lives.

NHS Dorset has already introduced a traffic light assessment to be used in local acute and community hospitals, made sure that every person with a learning disability can have an annual health check, involved family carers and people with learning disabilities in developing services and has committed to fulfilling all nine points of the charter.

These include making sure that health passports are available and used, that all staff understand and use the Mental Capacity Act, appointing a learning disability liaison nurse in hospitals and making sure every person with a learning disability can have an annual health check.

Alongside the charter Mencap will give NHS Dorset health professionals practical guidance and spell out the adjustments they need to make to their working practices when treating someone with a learning disability to ensure fair and equal healthcare.

Mencap head of campaigns and policy David Congdon said: "Our charter sets out a standard of practice and will make health trusts accountable to people with a learning disability, their families and carers.

"We welcome NHS Dorset's commitment to constantly strive to uphold these standards and help end indifference in the NHS."

No taxation without representation!

■ AFTER having second votes for years for our second home the local council has now withdrawn our votes, sheltering behind new "guidelines" from the Electoral Commission.

This unelected unaccountable quango, whose chairwoman refused to take responsibility for the election shambles in Sheffield and Hackney, which was criticised by a judge as presiding over an electoral system that would disgrace a banana republic, is ripe for abolition.

I was surprised when my household received second unrequested parliamentary voting papers in 2010 and drew this to the attention of the Returning Officer. No doubt everyone is our situation similarly got votes, a serious matter in a marginal seat like South Dorset.

The patience of second homeowners is exhausted. While paying 90 per cent council tax and using precious few council services, we are now denied the vote. What will the Equalities and Human Rights Commission think of it? No taxation without representation! Revolutions have been started for less.

Traders group together to promote their wares

A NEW organisation has been set up to run regular arts, crafts, curiosities and home produce events all under one roof.

My Events is working towards attracting at least 30-35 different traders offering everything from art, pottery, jewellery, sculpture and woodcrafts to hand-made cards, embroidery and knitted crafts.

Each trader will be individually advertised and marketed while My Events will also support new traders starting their own business and established artists or students who can exhibit their work to the public.

Spokesman Janet March said: "My Events is totally self supporting. We have no grants or benefits that we receive from any government body or charity, just a belief that working together can work.

"We believe that the right environment for selling and promoting is important, for the customer and trader, offering a colourful friendly atmosphere and environment similar to the ones found in Covent Garden and Camden Lock Markets in London."

My Events will launch itself with a Christmas weekend arts and crafts fair on December 18th-19th at Willowbed Hall, Chickereil. Entry is free and doors open at 8.15am each day.

Regular My Events will follow from mid-February 2011 with venues in Dorchester, Portland and Bridport during the year.

Janet said: "We have already attracted hand-made jewellery traders, woodcrafts including a local hiking stick maker, home produce including cakes, needlecrafts and potters and we would welcome other traders who would like to join us."

Any trader who would like to join My Events or who would like more information about the group can contact them on my-events@hotmail.co.uk or ring 01305-780796 and ask for My Events.

Unhealthy attitudes

A diagnosis of cancer is something none of us want to hear, whether for ourselves, a family member or a close friend. Nowadays, it does not necessarily mean the end of this life, but the thought of drastic treatment is not a pleasant prospect.

With all our fears and worries about the future and those we may be leaving behind, we seldom stop to think about what cancer is. My dictionary defines it as "a disease caused by an uncontrolled division of abnormal cells in a part of the body."

There is, of course, much more to it than that. But, greatly oversimplifying, it is caused when a cell or cells act independently of the body as a whole. In other words, they cease to function within the constraints and design of the whole body. (1 Cor. 12:12)

Some years ago, a song that became popular contained the words "I did it my way". Whilst we are all individuals and have been created with differing abilities, that does not mean we are a law unto ourselves. We are designed to work together with respect for order and authority.

Even when we are spared the disease, it is possible to have a cancerous attitude.

Dreaming of a dry Christmas!

ORGANISERS of Weymouth's Christmas lights switch-on are keeping their fingers crossed the festive tradition of inclement weather will be broken this year.

After suffering torrential rain last year organisers have put emergency measures in place to ensure the town's mayor Councillor Paul Kimber, civic dignitaries and the pantomime cast of Peter Pan stay dry during the switch-on.

The emergency measures on Saturday, November 27th follow a re-routing of the traditional cavalcade path due to the Olympic Transport roadworks.

Weymouth & Portland Chamber of Commerce Secretary Michel Hooper-Immins said: "Three of the last four switch-ons have been held in the rain."

"Last year's switch-on in Bond Street Square was greeted by torrential rain, so this year Weymouth & Portland Chamber of Commerce have arranged for a double gazebo to shelter the Mayor and guests."

The Mayor and Mayoress of Weymouth, Councillor Paul Kimber and Helen Carr, will lead the switching-on of the Weymouth town centre lights on Saturday, November 27th around 4.30pm, next to the civic Christmas tree in Bond Street Square.

The first citizens will be joined Carnival Queen Natalie Round, Town Crier Doris Eastwood, WPC President Nigel Reed and of course Father Christmas.

The civic party will first switch-on the Christmas tree lights at Brewers Quay at 3.30pm and then the procession of eight vintage cars will leave at 3.45pm, led by the Portland Sea Cadets band.

The cavalcade will move along Trinity Road, crossing the Town Bridge, take in St. Edmund Street, St. Thomas Street, King's Statue, St. Mary Street to Bond Street Square then at around 4.30pm, the lights of the civic Christmas tree in Bond Street Square will be turned on.

The St. Nicholas and St. Laurence School Choir will be singing carols at Brewers Quay from 2.30pm to 3.30pm and then under the Christmas tree in Bond Street Square from 4pm to 5pm.

The procession returns along St. Mary Street, across the Town Bridge, but terminates this year at the council office car park at North Quay.

■ BIG BUBBLES: Children can 'walk on water' on Sparkle night

■ CHRISTMAS in Weymouth is to be launched with a Sparkle by the Rotary Club of Weymouth Harbourside, with singing and walking on water!

On Thursday, November 25th at 6.30pm in the Pavilion Ocean Room, the X-MAS FACTOR singing competition will start-things off.

Around 30 singers will be performing in an X-Factor style competition with a panel of judges which will include this year's Carnival Queen, Natalie Round. The bar will be open so please go along, have a drink and watch the performers. Entrance will be £3 for adults, £2 for children, £1 for seniors. The winners of the categories will appear on stage in New Bond Street at Sparkle Night with one lucky winner receiving a fabulous star prize.

On Sparkle Night itself, on Thursday, December 9th, as well as stalls selling Christmas candles and various other goodies, there will be charity stalls and a range of foods including hog roast, doughnuts, hot dogs, candies, and pizzas cooked in a wood fired oven.

Pitches for stalls are still available to book, visit www.weymouthchristmassparkle.co.uk

There will be carol singers, musicians a bell ringer and of course Santa will be there with his little helpers.

Another main attraction will be the "water walkers", pictured, where kids can have a great time "walking" on water. Snow machines will help to create a seasonal atmosphere.

This is planned to be Weymouth's town centre Christmas event, shops will stay open late for shoppers, parking in council car parks will be free, Boot Hill will be open, and the Rotary Club expects the evening to go with a fantastic Sparkle!

The Terrace Arts Café

THE Terrace Arts Café in Seaton offers an array of delicious and affordable vegetarian, vegan and gluten-free dishes, all cooked fresh to order. The café isn't just for people with a specialist diet, infact 90% of our regular customers aren't vegetarian or vegan they simply enjoy the original dishes on offer. All meals are cooked on the premises using organic, fresh and local ingredients, everything on the menu is suitable for lacto-vegetarians we do not use eggs, meat or fish in any of our dishes. We endeavour to serve quality meals in a relaxed and friendly environment. The café has been open now for two years and has regular customers who enjoy coming in for a coffee and slice of cake or a three-course meal.

All coffee is ground to order using only the finest organic and fair-trade beans in our Italian coffee machine. We add freshly filtered water and organic milk is then steam frothed accordingly, all that contain milk are available with cows milk or soya milk. Various tempting breakfast options, starters/light bites, coffee time treats and afternoon tea options are available throughout the day. Main meals are varied and specials are available daily along with puddings.

The café is open every Friday and Saturday night, the regular menu is available during the evening along with other specials, booking is always advisable for evening dining.

Contemporary artwork is displayed in the café including Glass, Metals, Ceramics, Jewellery and Paintings. Why not visit The Terrace Arts Café for relaxing ambience and quality dining. We have been shortlisted for a national competition. Our opening times are Tuesday- Saturday 10am-5pm

Friday and Saturday evenings and 11.30am-3pm on Sundays. For further details please call 01297 20225.

Complete Meats

ORGANISING everything for Christmas is hard work and can be quite stressful, especially as there are so many things to think about. At Complete Meats we have made at least part of your food shopping a little easier. If you are feeding family or friends this year then give the Complete Meats Christmas Dinner Box a try. It contains enough meat for up to 8 people and includes a boned and rolled turkey crown (no waste or awkward carving), our award winning pork chipolatas and sausage meat, streaky bacon, stuffing mix and a jar of cranberry sauce. All this for just £29.99. If you still like the idea of a traditional turkey, other poultry or meat, then we continue to use local suppliers to ensure the best quality. Our lovely own gammon hams are made using free range pork and home cured, delicious hot or cold.

Please call into one of our shops in Axminster (tel: 01297 631506), Honiton or Chard - we are taking orders already! We look forward to serving you this Christmas and would like to thank you in advance for supporting your local farmers and traders.

Bridport Mortgage Centre

BRIDPORT Mortgage Centre is the only totally Independent Mortgage Brokers in Bridport. Run by Phill and Sue Morris, with over 25 years industry experience and knowledge.

They offer a professional and friendly, personal service to their clients – whether first time buyers, re-mortgaging or raising capital out of their property. Their Motto is 'Mortgages made easy' and they can help take the hard work out of looking for a mortgage.

Most people start by putting their property on the market and then look for a new home, which is fine but they would recommend that you should establish how much you can afford to borrow, before you go house hunting. This way you can avoid any disappointments and have a clear idea of the property range you can comfortably afford as well as having an agreement in principal available for when you make an offer.

As well as mortgages they also offer various insurances, such as, Buildings & Contents, Life, Critical illness and Mortgage Payment Protection insurance, as well as commercial and liability insurances.

With new interest rates coming in all the time, like the new 2.75% fixed for 2 years available on both purchases and re-mortgages, so pop in or call for an appointment today on 01308 423457.

Bridport Music - For all your music needs

BRIDPORT Music is an established family business, which has been trading for over 30 years. On the CD side of the business the shop has built up a reputation for being able to obtain recordings, which people are often unable to find elsewhere. A superior ordering service is offered with most items being obtained within one week. Bridport Music has built up expertise in tracking down more unusual products. This can take longer but the staff rarely admit defeat. The shop stocks a varied range of CDs and music DVDs – current or new and back catalogue including Rock & Pop, Classical, Jazz, Folk, Blues, Dance, Irish, Country, Reggae, World etc.

The shop also stocks a growing range of musical instruments (guitars, ukuleles, woodwind etc.) and books, audio equipment, Roberts Radios, headphones, batteries, leads, plugs, cables, microphones and even record player styli. It's a real musical Aladdin's cave!

Plenty of Christmas ideas for gifts and we shall be open till 8pm on Wednesday 8th December for Bridport's late night shopping. Come in and browse!

Minor guitar repairs are undertaken - if you have a guitar that isn't playable let us take a look at it for you. Our charges are very competitive. Please contact the friendly staff for further details on 01308 425707.

Expansion beckons for local legal partnership

Local solicitors practice Austen Whetham & Guest, recognised for its professionalism is building on the expertise of its 3 resident partners and developing a network of legal consultants within the region and has plans to expand nationwide.

For over 100 years AWG has been providing high quality legal advice at a fair price. The firm's success is founded upon excellent knowledge in our chosen legal areas of practice:- Family, Wills and Probate, Property, Civil Disputes.

The firm works both locally and nationally. We take care to supervise and monitor the quality of work carried out on behalf of our clients.

Over the last few years we have expanded our work area into London, and across the South and South West England. This has led to the development of an innovative practice in which some of our solicitors are self employed consultants. We have a small central office in Bridport where our partners and staff continue to run the firm and support consultants who run their own practices.

We are therefore able to offer a bespoke professional service where home visits and out of hours appointments to our clients are the norm: Our partners are: Scott Bowley who lives in the Lyme Regis /Bridport area he undertakes Dispute resolution, civil disputes, property matters

Peter Alexander who lived and worked for many years in London but now lives near Bridport undertakes matrimonial cases for high

net worth clients

Elizabeth West who lives near Beaminster undertakes property and wills and probate matters

We have recently appointed 2 consultants in the Dorchester, Weymouth & Portland and Bridport areas

Gerald Duke lives near and is well known in the Dorchester area where he undertakes mainly property work

Stephen Peck lives near Bridport but has worked and is well known in the Weymouth & Portland, Dorchester and Bridport area where he undertakes wills lasting powers of attorney and living wills as well as probates.

Scott Bowley the senior partner of Austen Whetham & Guest said: "We are tremendously excited by the possibilities and challenges of this new development, and are already in discussion with other potential consultants.

This enables us to offer an accessible, flexible and expert legal advice to anyone requiring our services"

Dorset's premier fireplace design company

Stone's Fireplaces is a family run business established in 1876, and Dorset's premier fireplace design company. They can accommodate the needs of all homeowners, and are experts in installation in listed buildings, farmhouses and cottages.

Stone's Fireplaces is a traditional company and is dedicated to offering first class service. They specialise in the supply and installation of woodburning and multifuel stoves, gas fires and fireplaces. Stone's Masonry division create and manufacture beautiful bespoke natural stone fireplaces. All work is carried out by their own in-house expert team of installers.

A new addition to their professional services is Stone's Chimney Solutions, which is a full chimney sweeping and maintenance service. The aim is to ensure their clients are safe, using their fires and stoves correctly, using the correct fuels and maintaining their investment. Stone's work to the highest standards and are approved HETAS engineers and members of NACS (National Association of Chimney Sweeps). This is all important as most insurance companies will no longer pay out for claims unless there is evidence that the chimney has been professionally swept and a valid and current certificate of sweeping has been issued.

Call Stone's today for a quality and professional service that you will be happy to recommend to friends.

More than a great hair salon!

Medusa Apothecary has many years experience in the health and beauty profession, and supplies skincare, haircare, cosmetics and fragrance that can be found on the shelves of some of the great Premium Niche and Naturals brands, making them appropriate for a vast range of customers, and they are available in-store and on-line to clients throughout the UK.

Medusa stocks an exclusive and extensive range of fragrances;

Creed: with over 200 original and hand-made perfumes produced by seven generations of the Creed family this is one of the oldest perfume manufacturers in the world.

L.T. PIVER: marrying the classic to the modern, the traditional with the avant-garde they have been producing elegant perfumes for over 200 years.

E.Coudray's classical and elegant fragrances are inspired by the perfumes created by Edmond Coudray, who by 1850, supplied most of the Royal and Imperial families of Europe.

Caron: representing luxury and tradition for over a hundred years CARON has maintained its status as a legend of French luxury, and is today the guardian of the traditional arts and methods of "Haute Parfumerie".

Lalique, the world's only "Parfumeur Cristallier" owes its origins to René Lalique, the innovative 1800's jewellery designer.

Now Geo F Trumper is recognised throughout the world for its matchless range of gentlemen's fragrances and grooming products.

Natural skincare brands include;

Spiezia, who led the way with its organic skincare range and is accredited by the Soil Association across every single product. They are still recognised as the leading and original 100 per cent organic skincare brand.

Neal's Yard Remedies, is one of Britain's most pioneering natural, ethical, health and beauty companies, offering a range of award-winning innovative, scientifically formulated, organic products to suit specific skin and lifestyle needs.

Cowshed: its additively indulgent range of natural, therapeutic products include bath products blended using the highest quality organic, fair-trade and wild crafted essential oils from around the world.

REN Skincare uses the latest hi-tech bio actives, is free from skin-unfriendly synthetic ingredients and is gorgeously pleasurable to use.

thisworks: founded by renowned fashion and beauty journalist Kathy Phillips the company aims to create a range of products using high concentrations of naturally active ingredients, to deliver what is promised on the bottle.

Rodial, Nature, Science, Skincare. Rodial skincare delivers targeted treatments to specific skin concerns combining the best of anti-ageing and firming ingredients.

Hair products are also available from popular brands such as Kerastase and Redken.

The Expert Nails range is a favourite also, the range was created Leighton Denny, four times winner of nail technician of the year.

T.LeClerc – the French make up brand since 1881 offers some 200 product references, complexion, eyes, lips, nails, accessories, please visit

Looking good this Christmas

With the summer holidays out of the way, and the kids safely back in school many people's thoughts are already turning to Christmas and very soon you will start to receive the inevitable invitations to work parties, dances and social events.

With the party season in the not too distant future, and Christmas just 6 weeks away, it is never too early to start thinking about how you can lose weight before the festive period.

So you may be asking 'what hope do I have in reaching a healthier weight before Christmas after I've splurged whilst on holiday and over the summer months? And, what's more, if I do lose weight, how will I maintain it over the festive season?'

The answer lies in starting your weight-loss journey now, setting goals and rewards that will spur you on to your main goal - your ideal weight, and a healthier life.

Many overweight people dread the end of year parties and wearing shapeless clothes in order to cover up, but by taking action and doing something about your weight problem now you needn't stress about how you are going to look at this year's festive get-togethers.

Instead you can look forward to wearing a new little black dress or snappy suit and imagine just how shocked your family and friends will be when they see the new slim and healthy you, especially the ones that haven't seen you since last Christmas.

Celia Manville & Maggie Duarte are counsellors for LighterLife, a weight-loss and weight-management programme designed for adults with one or more stone to lose. For further information and to book a free information session, call 07515 699 801 or visit www.lighterlife.com

N.K.W Weddings & Occasions has moved and is now open

THOSE of you who have known and loved the elegant little wedding boutique on Poundbury, will be anticipating the opening of the new shop on Thursday 11th November. Now central to Dorchester, you'll find the lovely little boutique in Durngate Street at No. 1 Alington Hall.

N.K.W is the place to go when planning your wedding. You will find not only a wealth of inspiration for table centrepieces and decorating your venue but also lots of help and advice in making all those choices. There is help in visualising styles and trends with a complete venue dressing service available.

You'll also find the hire service invaluable, whereby you can have numerous gorgeous items for your big day at a fraction of the purchase cost. Items include Candleabras, Oversize Martini Glasses, Vintage Birdcages and Chair Covers. There is also a linen and crockery hire service.

There is also a little something to complete any 'big day out'. Jewellery, Hair accessories, Edwardian Umbrellas, the all important greetings card and beautiful wrap for your chosen gift.

Gifts can be anything from the range of Forever & Ever luxury bath & petals, Lisbeth Dahl photo frames, albums, keepsake boxes and lanterns.

N.K.W Weddings & Occasions will now widen their product range to include baby shower & new baby gifts coordinating with wonderful cards and wrap.

All this and lovely items to buy 'just because'!

Don't miss N.K.W's opening day on Thursday 11th November!

The opening hours from then will be 10am to 5pm Tuesday to Saturday

Best of British!

Afternoon tea at the Old Tea House 'Bring back the traditional English tea time!'

'Relax and make time for tea.'

This is how Country Living Magazine described this teahouse built in 1635. Afternoon tea bridges the divide between young and old, everyone from small children to grandparents enjoys teatime.

The Ritz is unbeatable for its high teas and am-bience, but our wonderful tea house is right here on your doorstep in Dorchester waiting to embrace and delight you with the most wonderful home made scones and tea time treats.

There are 2 or 3 tiers to the cake stands, with a selection of finger sandwiches, homemade cakes, eclairs and scones, with tea or freshly ground coffee.

There is also teacakes, crumpets and homemade soups just waiting to be shared with you, with roast dinners and scrumptious puddings on Sunday.

Come along, relax and enjoy one of Dorset's most beautiful and most haunted tea rooms. A warm welcome awaits you so don't hesitate to revive this great British tradition of high, afternoon and cream teas. Best of British!

Christmas at www.newcuriositygifts.co.uk

Christmas is coming to the new curiosityshop and we would love you to come and see our grotto of contemporary delights. Alternatively, why not sit in the cosy warmth of your home & visit our On-Line shop at www.newcuriositygifts.co.uk. and get a feel for our fabulous and cool gift & home ideas. Don't forget, delivery is free!

For the discerning lady our range includes the Autumn/Winter collection of Coeur de Lion jewellery with its stunningly modern and elegant designs. For that 'oh so difficult man' we have Simon Carter with his iconic British collection of stylish watches, scarves, wallets and cufflinks. For those little monsters why not give a Dennis the Menace mug, a Charlie & Lola milk & biscuits set or maybe a Gruffalo money box, all guaranteed to raise a smile. If you're looking for something for the home, one of our beautifully designed Fragrance Lamps will make the perfect gift or maybe our fabulous range of scented candles from London might help to create the ambience you're looking for.

Talking of ambience, why not create a homely festive atmosphere with our rustic decorations from Germany, or maybe a moose head advent calendar! Originating from the idea of the Old Curiosity Shop, we try to offer our customers a shopping experience unlike any other. So whether you are looking for retro-styled reed & fabric electric lamps, contemporary wall canvases of Jimi Hendrix & The Who, locally made eco-stationery or sumptuous fairtrade handbags & scarves, we will at the very least offer you a warm welcome and hopefully something different for your families' festive shopping basket."

The best treatments possible in the most luxurious and relaxing atmosphere

House of Health & Beauty have now been looking after their clients for thirteen years. They have a total of eight luxurious treatment rooms including the downstairs room for those that can't manage the stairs, and their double treatment room which will enable clients to have treatments in the same room as friends or partners.

The salon has a lovely relaxation area where clients can enjoy a complementary beverage and relax with magazines after their treatments before leaving the salon. You will also find a wonderful infrared sauna which adds to the whole relaxing experience by relieving aches and pains, relaxing tired muscles and giving the skin a wonderful glow to name just a few benefits.

The salon offers all of the usual treatments that you would expect, as well as fabulous new ones such as the new lava shells massage. House of Health and Beauty are the first in the area to offer this exciting new method that is already very popular with the stars and is proving a real hit with their clients. Also on the menu are hot stone massage, Indian head massage, reflexology, and wonderful detoxing body treatments. Pre wedding packages and mother to be packages are also a must and the top to toe package is something not to be missed. You will also find voucher and gift sets available for Christmas.

House of Health and Beauty as the name suggest likes to treat the whole person. They believe that everyone should take some time out of their busy schedules to have some relaxation time that helps body and mind to be less stressed enabling them to cope with their busy lives. Pop along and make an appointment today, you won't regret it!

The Fireplace - Still the heart of your home

As a crucial source of heat in your home, and with a huge range of styles to choose from, fires and fireplaces are once again at the top of the list of desirable features. A fireplace puts heart into a house, and flickering firelight provides a delightful ambience and a real focal point for your room.

Although traditionally constructed of heavy permanent materials, fireplaces needn't be forever. A carefully chosen fireplace provides a dramatic facelift; its installation possibly taking no more than a day or two, and the total cost is worth every penny when you see the end result!

There are two main aspects to consider. The style and appearance of the fireplace itself and the fuel it will use. Fuel may be the traditional 'solid fuel', or perhaps you find gas or electricity more convenient. There is a vast choice of materials from which a new fireplace can be made. So put the heart back in your home - take a look at the wide range of ideas at Casterbridge Fires Ltd - from stoves to open fires, from wood to marble, from plain to fancy.

A new word in style for county town

As shop that mixes the work of Dorset designers with the internationally famous names is the latest addition to Dorchester's buoyant retail scene.

Eureka is the second retail venture by entrepreneur Tim Altham, whose business until now has been in supplying quality retailers with stylish stationary and fashion accessories. The first Eureka store opened in September 2009 in Swanage.

Products at the Dorchester store include stationary and accessories from Designers Guild, exclusive brands from Denmark including Greengate and local designer Caroline Tucker. Stationary and ceramics from Cath Kidston and Nora jewellery from Norway (Exclusive to Eureka).

Designers from Dorset are responsible for the shop's lively spread of greeting cards and wrappings, as well as the range of contemporary eco bags which, says Tim, are leading the field in colour and design.

Eureka, Tim says, sets out to offer "an infusion of colour and design, across a whole range of products - as many as possible from Dorset designers."

"We want to support local artists and designers, and we are always happy to talk to them about their ideas."

Eureka is open on Dorchester Cracker night and encourages you to visit to view the wonderful present ideas in stock, including lines of unique men's gifts with a strong nautical theme.

The pros and cons of the cynical Christmas re-issue

"RE-ISSUE! Re-package! Re-package! Re-evaluate the songs, Double pack with a photograph, Extra track (and a tacky badge)."

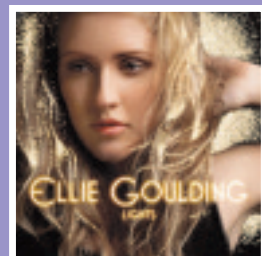

■ 'Paint A Vulgar A Picture'
- The Smiths

NO ONE put it better than Morrissey - it's that time of the year when record companies ready themselves to re-release albums with bonus tracks and/or new 'deluxe' packaging, squeezing their catalogue of material for every penny its worth.

Fans have to decide whether it's worth buying an album they've already got for the second time just to get their hands on a few remixes or live recordings. Sometimes it'll be a re-hashed greatest hits - the same as the last one except the tracks are in a different order and that they've all been newly re-mastered (in other words, they play louder - so you have to turn the volume down).

Call me Mr Cynic, but that really is the way record companies make their money these days. And, half the time, I still fall for their little ploys myself!

But that's not to say all of these re-releases are a bad thing or that they represent poor value. If you've only been thinking about buying an album, you're going to end up getting more bang for your buck if you wait for the re-issue.

A good example is Ellie Goulding's debut album Lights, which made it to number one back in March. It's been given new artwork and a new title - Bright Lights - for a Christmas re-issue, which comes with seven additional songs.

These include a new version of the title track (which itself was only ever available as a bonus with the iTunes version of the album) and a cover of Elton John's 'Your Song' (which is being used as the soundtrack for this year's John Lewis Christmas TV ad). If you haven't already got the record, then the new version is clearly a better deal. But if you were one of the fans who helped get the album to number one in the first place, then surely you'd feel a tad annoyed?

Another album - this time a real classic - getting an overhaul in time for Christmas, is Paul McCartney and Wings' Band On The Run.

Amazingly, this is the third re-issue just in my memory to offer bonus tracks et al, but never before has their been quite as much choice.

You can go for the bog standard original album on a single CD, a special edition comprising 2 CDs and a DVD or - if you want to really splash the cash - a 3 CD / DVD deluxe edition that comes with a 120-page hardback book that will set you back around £65.

What I find the most tempting at Christmas however is the mountain of box sets that hit the shelves, often packed full of 'rarities'. Now that's a term that's just as likely to be another word for 'rejects' - but not always.

A good case in point is the contents of the new Bob Dylan Original Mono Recordings box set, none of which has previously seen the light of day on CD. Here you get Dylan's first eight LPs reproduced from the first generation monaural mixes - as he originally intended them to be heard.

Back in the early Sixties, few people had stereo equipment and any recording artist would see the mono version of their record as the definitive one.

Stereo mixes would often be cobbled together as an afterthought, often without any input whatsoever from the recording artist themselves. This was one of the major selling points to last year's Beatles mono box set - and I'd argue now that any of the Fab Four's records sound better in mono up to - and including - Sgt Pepper.

The other problem with these early stereo mixes was that they were designed for two speakers at either end of a large room (for this was the usual set-up of the lucky few that did have stereo in those days). This meant the separation in the mix had to be very wide, so you could hear the difference between what the left and right speakers were pumping out into your living room. The idea that future generations would be listening on the move, with headphones, wouldn't have entered the engineer's head.

Where as many of the early Beatles stereo mixes were plain bad (vocals in one ear, instruments in the other) the Dylan mixes were just plain unimaginative (harp one side, guitar the other, vocals down the middle). There's no doubt mono is the way to go when it comes to the great albums from the first half of the Sixties.

So not all of the Christmas re-issues are cynical ploys to relieve you of your hard earned cash. Just beware the tacky badge!

A YULETIDE EVENING WITH GERVASE PHINN

BORN raconteur Gervase Phinn will be charming the crowds of Bridport this Friday with his heart-warming Christmas show.

The former teacher and school inspector found fame with his best-selling series of five Dales books and has now taking his storytelling to the stage.

Affectionately dubbed "the James Herriot of Schools", his warm-hearted reminiscences about the life of a schools inspector in the Yorkshire Dales have featured heavily on Radio 4's Book Of The Week and Book At Bedtime slots.

He has also written a wide range of academic books, children's poetry and fiction, has made numerous TV and radio appearances.

Gervase's Yuletide show is a return to the stand up comedy of days gone by, influenced by old style comedians Al Read and Jimmy James.

"It's not the sort of stand up comedy you usually see, its not cutting edge. The material is inoffensive, full of stories and anecdotes. It can be amusing and sometimes poignant. My humour is more old-fashioned and traditional." Said Gervase.

Gervase's old style comedy is something for all the family to and enjoy, although mainly popular with the older generations he's a storyteller any age group can relate to if they give him the chance.

"I did have three or four young students on the front row once but they left because they thought they'd come to see Ricky Gervais," He said.

"Its an observational show for all the family. I don't do language, I don't do vulgarity, its not parody or satire its just old fashioned observational humour. It's really my take on Christmas and its such a joyful show, its heart-warming and life affirming."

After years spent working with children Gervase has an endless source of material to draw on and they constantly provide him with tales that couldn't be scripted better.

"The small child is always the greatest philosopher because they don't know about skin colour, race or background. They don't know how to curl a lip and be cynical," said Gervase.

"I was in a school a couple of weeks ago and I saw a little lad of four years old in the nursery in a cardboard box. I could see the box moving from side to side and he was brum brumming away and I looked over the top and said are you in your racing car and a little face looked up and said no. I'm in a cardboard box."

It was during the Christmas period that Gervase got his first ever laugh on stage however it is not one he remembers fondly.

"I was in the nativity and I was a palm tree. I didn't move or speak I just stood on stage in brown crepe paper with paper mache coconuts around my neck and I was so excited until the curtains opened and they all laughed at me.

"It was a really awful experience and I wet myself. I wriggled and squirmed as if I had chronic worms and eventually the wet paper fell off to reveal my electric blue underpants.

"I got off stage and I was so upset but I remember this lovely teacher put her arm round me and just said don't worry love we've all done it and when I was a little girl I used to wet my knickers."

Just recently Gervase visited a residential home where he came across that very teacher who comforted him, now in her nineties. He reminded her of this story and of her kind words of comfort.

"She looked over to me and said yes Gervase, and I'm afraid it comes full circle."

A Yuletide evening with Gervase Phinn will be at Bridport's Electric Palace this Friday, November 19th. Doors open at 6:45pm and tickets are £16.50. To book tickets call 01308 424901.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

IN the summer of 2009 we featured two poems by Ian Gallon, a 'View' reader from Bridport. We are obliged to Ian again for sharing with us this excellent new poem he has written.

ONE AFTERNOON IN WILTSHIRE

He lay,
Arms outstretched,
Letting the sand
Fall through his fingers.
The morning sun warmed his back,
And for a moment
He was a child again
On Cromer Sands
Building a castle against the tide.
Then he saw the earth move
And saw the blinding flash
But heard no sound.

She stood
On the tarmac
Hands tightly clasped
Nervously twisting her wedding ring.
The afternoon sun warmed her back,
And for a moment
She was a bride again
Dressed in white
Holding her bouquet against her breast.
Then she saw the coffin move
Saw the blinding flash of blue, red and white.
Her tears flowed
But she made no sound.

EDWARD Thomas, who wrote all of his verse during the First World War, has featured several times in this column. Though he died in France, in 1917, his poems were all written in England before he got to the front line. So he was writing this November verse before he had experienced the mud in the trenches - and before he knew that this same month, in 1918, would witness the signing of the Armistice.

NOVEMBER

November's days are thirty;
November's earth is dirty,
Those thirty days, from first to last;
And the prettiest things on ground are the paths
With morning and evening hobnails dented,
With foot and wing-tip overprinted
Or separately characterized,
Of little beast and little bird.
The fields are mashed by sheep, the roads
Make the worst going, the best the woods
Where dead leaves upward and downward scatter.
Few care for the mixture of earth and water,
Twig, leaf, flint, thorn,
Straw, feather, all that men scorn,
Pounded up and sodden by flood,
Condemned as mud.

But of all the months when the earth is greener
Not one has clean skies that are cleaner.
Clean and clear and sweet and cold,

They shine above the earth so old,
While the after-tempest cloud
Sails over in silence though winds are loud,
Till the full moon in the east
Looks at the planet in the west
And earth is silent as it is black,
Yet not unhappy for its lack.
Up from the dirty earth men stare;
One imagines a refuge there
Above the mud, in the pure bright
Of the cloudless heavenly light;
Another loves earth and November more dearly
Because without them, he sees clearly,
The sky would be nothing more to his eye
Than he, in any case, is to the sky;
He loves even the mud whose dyes
Renounce all brightness to the skies.

The Dorset Art and Craft Show

WOODMEAD Halls, Hill Road, Lyme Regis are hosting The Dorset Art and Craft Show on Saturday 20th and Sunday, November 21st. This well-established art and craft event comes to Lyme Regis to offer a unique shopping event with a wide range of beautiful handmade gifts for sale, just perfect for original and thoughtful Christmas presents.

Come along to Woodmead Halls to enjoy this great show where you can see over 20 local artists and craftspeople exhibiting a wide range of quality work for sale including handmade jewellery, art, handbags, fashion accessories, photography, toys, stained glass, baby gifts and homeware.

There is free admission for all visitors and delicious refreshments, including light lunches and home-made cakes will be available throughout the show. After Lyme, there is one further event before Christmas, when The Dorset Art and Craft Show visits Dorchester on Saturday, December 11th. For further details visit www.dorsetartandcraftshow.co.uk or call Lindsay on 07730 557090.

SHOW organiser and jewellery-maker Lindsay Anderson will be exhibiting her gemstone and silver range of jewellery.

Same committee, same show, same name, just a new venue!

THE organising committee of the Portland steam & Vintage Show are pleased to report that plans are well under way for the 2011 show, which will be held on the weekend of 16th/17th July at a new venue in Chickerell.

Southwell Business Park, the show's home for the last 12 years, has recently been sold & the committee have been advised by the new owners that our use of the show ground over the next two years would be severely restricted due to the site being used in connection with the Olympic sailing events. After much discussion the committee decided to put a positive spin on this devastating news and the decision was made to move the show to a different venue. A search was made for another suitable site on Portland but unfortunately there was nothing available, so it was decided to move the show to a new site off of the Island, giving us the opportunity to continue with our already highly successful & popular show.

We are delighted to announce that the new venue for next years show will be Moor Farm, Knights in the Bottom, Chickerell, Weymouth, Dorset DT3 4EA, in association with Mr Stephen Vine, Mr John Hollins and their families.

Moor Farm is easily accessed from Weymouth & Bridport via the B3157, with entrance to the site being by way of level gravel & tarmac roadways, making it much more user friendly for both exhibitors and visitors. There are no steep hills to negotiate or Portland wind to battle with!

After we had made the decision to leave the Island the committee discussed whether or not they should change the format or perhaps have some 'special' attractions. After much deliberation it was decided to change nothing! Yes - NOTHING! No celebrity appearances, no special attractions and no one off events. So, it'll be the same friendly committee providing the same good old fashioned, value for money, family day out that our visitors have come to know and love. In other words 'if it ain't broke, don't fix it'!

Once again the magnificent steam engines will be the centre of the show, together with displays of other modes of transport including classic & vintage cars, military and commercial vehicles, tractors, motorcycles and vintage caravans. Alongside will be the usual craft and model tents, charity and special interest stalls, trade stalls, fairground organs, stationary engines and the all-important beer tent! For younger visitors to the Show there will be children's fairground rides, a bouncy castle & trampolines. Main arena events will include vehicle parades & the ever popular dog agility.

On the Saturday evening a large number of the vehicles will take part in a road run to Chickerell and back, making a stop at The Lugger Inn, West Street and finally ending up at The Victoria Inn, Knights in the Bottom. This is an ideal opportunity to see some of the old and interesting vehicles in motion.

Each year the Show donates a large amount of its profits to charity. Any local organisations, groups or charities who would like to be considered as a beneficiary are invited to contact the organizer to put their name forward.

The Show is organised & run entirely by volunteers and relies heavily on donations and sponsorship to survive. We would be pleased to hear from any local businesses that are able to offer sponsorship, either in the long term or a one off donation.

We would also like to hear from any individuals or groups who would like to volunteer to help out on show days, covering such tasks as programme selling, marshaling car parks or even making the tea!

Application forms for exhibitors will be available from December.

For general enquires please contact the Show organiser, Mick Mulley on 01305 822728

Leisure Centre Disability Swimming

"THE Sinking Swimmers" is the new adopted name for Bridport Leisure Centre's disability swimming class. The group is lead by instructor Maria Bowen-Ashwin and runs during term time on a Thursday morning. The session is for non-swimmers and improvers and is suitable for those with a range of disabilities including, Multiple Sclerosis, Parkinson's, arthritis and rheumatism, amputees, severe depression, fibromyalgia, ME and joint replacement. The session covers basic swimming techniques and safety skills and gentle water exercise has been proven to help keep the body supple and strong without putting undue pressure on the body.

This growing group is a mixture of friendly characters who support each other both in and out of the pool as well as having occasional social meetings and this year took part in the Lions Club Sponsored Swim, which is where their new name came from, and completed 40 lengths between them and raised over £360 for local charities.

If you are interested in joining the group contact Bridport Leisure Centre on 01308 427464 for more information.

Anjali Dance Company present 'Genius'

ANJALI Dance Company bring their talented troupe of professional dancers with learning disabilities for a special performance of 'Genius' - a double bill of provocative dance theatre - on Thursday, November 25th at 7.30pm to Bridport Arts Centre. The company bring a show that is delightful, daring and provocative with laughs and moments of something a bit special.

Anjali are a unique dance company. The company challenges the existing stereotype in dance - one that is obsessed with "perfect" bodies and flawless technique - by presenting us with differently abled bodies who excel in honesty, humour and sensuality.

In Genius, a brand new work for 2011, Anjali present a double bill of dance theatre - T*WO and Moon 67.

*T*WO asks can you? Should you? Would you, seek to perfect life and purge the human gene pool of isolated, undesirable traits and characteristics?* Set in a secret eugenic laboratory that runs rife with an obsession with hygienic normality, observe through the lens of Anjali's microscope the resulting cocktail of humour, glamour and insolence, spiced with a drop of insanity.

On a mission to the outer reaches of the solar system to investigate the mysterious Moon 67, five less-than-perfect astronauts struggle with zero gravity, potted plants and each other as they swing from loving to fighting in the shadow of an all consuming box. Launching the Greek myth of Prometheus and Pandora's Box into space, Anjali invite you to take your protein pills and put your helmet on as Moon 67 transports you to a ship of clowns, engaged in dances of delight and despair and slowly discovering that in space - no one can hear you laugh.

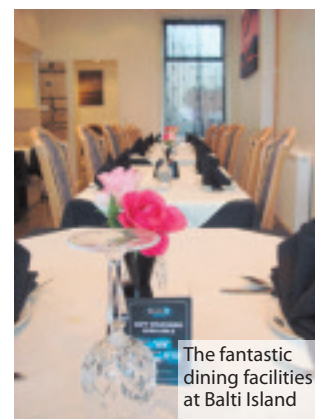

Anjali has toured around Europe taking its work to a wide variety of audiences, and Bridport Arts Centre is proud to be welcoming them on Thursday, November 25th at 7.30pm. Tickets cost £10 full price, £5 for concessions and carers receive free admission. For more information and tickets, call the Bridport Arts Centre box office on 01308 424204.

New Indian Restaurant on Portland

by Fred Thomson

The fantastic dining facilities at Balti Island

LOCATED at 191 Chiswell in Portland, Manager Shihab Miah, his brother and team of dedicated staff have been serving the finest Indian cuisine to the people of the local area for over 8 years. For two years now they have had a license to serve alcohol and so have transformed the business into a Take away AND Restaurant.

Balti Island is the only Tandoori Restaurant on the island of Portland. Formerly known as a popular Indian Take away, the recently refurbished interior now offers more of a delightful restaurant than one might assume with a pre-conception of the Balti Island as a Take away. The kitchen area has been moved which has made way for additional seating areas so that the fresh 'new look' restaurant can now cater for parties of up to 40 covers.

Interior is of a modern style with a relaxing atmosphere and fresh simplistic feel.

The Food is of traditional Indian origin and you can expect to find all of your usual favourites and a few others you most certainly will not yet have tried. I stopped by for a business lunch and took some photos to show the interior off in the paper and it has to be said, the food was terrific and between the two of us we ate every single bit. The Garlic Chilli Chicken was hot (almost too hot for me) but tasted so superb that I put my curry taste buds through their paces and got through it. Well worth it as it was one of the most pleasant curries I'd ever eaten.

Balti Island are pleased to offer a Banquet Night every Tuesday where for £9.50 you can choose any starter, main dish, rice and side or bread. An absolute bargain and well worth nipping out of an evening for with friends for a catch up.

To round up, the impression I got from meeting with the team was that Take-away business was busy as ever but they really would like to promote the fact that they have now undertaken extensive works so that they can provide the local people with a really pleasant Indian Restaurant now so rather than taking your food home you can dine in the restaurant in a fresh and comfortable environment.

St Catherine's school Christmas shopping evening

THE Parents and Friends Association of St. Catherine's school and Pre-school are having a Christmas Shopping Evening on Thursday, November 25th from 7pm - 9pm. Family, friends and the local community are all welcome to come and shop, look around the new pre-school eco building and enjoy the festive refreshments on offer.

Emma Burt, pre-school leader and her team moved into 'The Cabin' at the beginning of term and the children are enjoying their new surroundings but there is still work to be done. From updating computer equipment to re-establishing the garden, including a paved area for the children to use scooters and tricycles, fencing and raised beds for planting. So far, Western Power and The Bridport Lions have both very kindly offered donations which will help towards our grand total.

So please support our event, come along and enjoy this fun evening, whilst raising much needed funds!

MAYHEM OF MISTAKEN IDENTITIES AND CHAOS

ReView | See How They Run at Bridport Arts Centre

A scene from See How They Run

hilarious interpretation of the uptight flower-arranger who shows her true colours when she finds the cooking sherry. An experienced cast masterfully develops the increasingly complicated and farcical plot. "Did a pair of underpants run up those stairs just now?" asks Clive Winton casually of the timid Reverend Humphrey (Keith Himsforth). Such insane behaviour of an accidental gathering of vicars shocks the visiting Bishop of Lax (Jerry Smith). Steve Scorey as the unexpected intruder, keeps everybody in the Vicarage on their toes as do the 'Home Guard' when they arrive, convincingly represented by John Surry and Barry Irvine.

Performances of See How They Run continue until Saturday, November 20th at the Bridport Arts Centre. Performances start daily at 7.30pm. See advert below for more details.

Here's Harry

HARRY Potter and the Deathly Hallows is the seventh and final adventure in the Harry Potter film series, and will be told in two full length parts, with the first released at cinemas this Friday (November 19th)

Part 1 begins as Harry, Ron and Hermione set out on their perilous mission to track down and destroy the Horcruxes - the keys to Voldemort's immortality. On their own, without the guidance or protection of their professors, the three friends must now rely on one another more than ever. But there are Dark Forces in their midst that threaten to tear them apart.

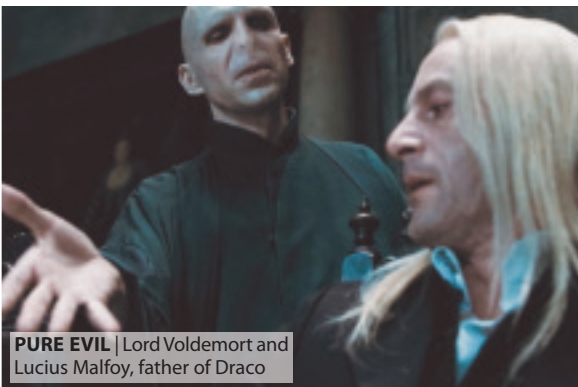

Meanwhile, the Wizarding world has become a dangerous place for all enemies of the Dark Lord. The long-feared war has begun and Voldemort's Death Eaters seize control of the Ministry of Magic and even Hogwarts, terrorising and arresting anyone who might oppose them. But the one prize they still seek is the one most valuable to Voldemort: Harry Potter. The Chosen One has become the hunted one as Voldemort's followers look for Harry with orders to bring him to the Dark Lord... alive.

POTTER'S PALS | Harry, Hermione and Ron don't like the looks of what's ahead

Harry's only hope is to find the Horcruxes before Voldemort finds him. But as he searches for clues, he uncovers an old and almost forgotten tale - the legend of the Deathly Hallows. And if the legend turns out to be true, it could give Voldemort the ultimate power he seeks.

Little does Harry know that his future has already been decided by his past when, on that fateful day, he became "the Boy Who Lived." No longer just a boy, Harry Potter is drawing ever closer to the task for which he has been preparing since he first stepped into Hogwarts: the ultimate battle with Voldemort.

Levellers: A Weapon called the Word Tour

OK so it's only the second day of the tour, but what better way to relax after a set than with a pint down the pub and a cuddle from a pretty girl!

Following their gig at The Electric Palace in Bridport last Wednesday The Levellers wandered next door to The Woodman in South Street to soothe their throats and enjoy a pint with their fans. Lead singer Mark Chadwick is seen below giving Izzy Broom a cuddle after a hard nights work.

Her husband Dan said: "It was a fantastic evening's entertainment and great to meet them afterwards. They were all very friendly and just came and sat down next to us and chatted away."

Bridport was the second night of the folk rock bands, 'A Weapon called the Word Tour' which started in Poole and ends in three weeks time in Stroud after touring the country.

■ EVERY year companies throughout the area start wondering what they should do for Christmas.

Well this year the decision has been made easier. The owners of the Fairwater Head Hotel, Carrie and Adam Southwell, have put together a very special Christmas package for companies who want to treat their staff to a really great Christmas Party.

It doesn't matter how large your group the Party Package covers the full Christmas works: atmosphere, ambience, celebrations and traditional Christmas fayre.

The Fairwater Head Hotel will ensure you have a great party with locally sourced fresh ingredients and a jovial atmosphere.

The menu includes a choice of starters including a scallop and prawn soufflé, oven baked brie or a roast vegetable terrine, while the main course includes a choice of a traditional roast turkey with all the trimmings, roasted pheasant, organic salmon or a homemade nut roast.

Puddings are something else with a selection including a traditional Christmas pudding, winter berry soup with a floating meringue, truffles or cheese & biscuits. This is followed by home-made mince pies.

There's a choice of lunchtimes or evenings with music and dancing included each evening.

Costs are from just £24.50 a head but you will need to hurry as dates are filling fast. Just call the hotel for available dates and costs.

● This week's winner of a Free Meal for Two at Fairwater Head Hotel is Janet Paget of Mosterton.

Hidden Delight in Charmouth

FORTNAMS in Charmouth are delighted to present "SEQUI", an attractive chalet bungalow situated on the west side of Charmouth.

The property is nestled at the end of a good sized driveway, on an elevated site but hidden from view from Old Lyme Road. This house has been built to take full advantage of the views and light and thus all the features are broadly based at what may seem the back of the house but with good reasons!

Sequi has flexible space offering 3/4 bedrooms depending whether one wished to utilise one ground floor bedroom as a study. The house has a spacious dining room leading off the kitchen and a separate lounge with open fireplace.

A great feature of Sequi is the panoramic views across the countryside towards Stonebarrow Cliffs and the village, which can be seen from the lounge, conservatory, kitchen and dining room as well as the upstairs double bedrooms.

The current owners have added value and style to the house with the addition of a well placed conservatory from which to take full advantage of the scenery and garden.

The rear garden has been carefully landscaped and features trellised arches winding pathways, a pond and well placed shrubs and plants, plus a large vegetable area magically hidden from view towards the side frontage.

Sequi has UPVC double glazing, gas fired central heating, a garage plus a useful integral large workshop below the lounge.

Living room with open fire, fitted kitchen/utility room with archway to dining room, two ground floor bedrooms, wet room and additional WC, two first floor bedrooms, one with balcony, shower room, gardens, workshop and garage and parking

The asking price for Sequi is OIRO £435000 Freehold. ## Automatic model joins upgraded Mazda2 range on sale now

THE SIGNIFICANTLY upgraded Mazda2 model range is now on sale in the UK priced from £9,995 (on-the-road).

The nine-strong line-up of three-door and five-door hatchbacks offers customers a choice of three petrol and one diesel powertrains and four generous equipment levels. Responding to public demand, two new models are added to the range – an automatic model (with a 1.5-litre engine and four-speed transmission) and the 'Tamura' offering sporty looks at a high-value price.

New features appearing across the entire upgraded Mazda2 range deliver significant improvements to interior comfort, ride quality, handling and refinement. Outside, the Upgraded Mazda2 carries forward the "exquisite and dynamic" design concept while blending the brand's 'family face' with a larger five-point grille and larger Mazda badge to harmonise the Mazda2 with the whole product line-up. Plus the Mazda2 features newly designed front fog lamp bezels and wheels which create a stronger sense of quality and sportiness.

Inside, finishes and decorative parts are revised for a higher quality feel throughout the cabin, included is a newly designed instrument panel, new seat patterns and seat fabric colours, meter panel with black-out finish dials and chrome rings, while the centre stack is finished in piano black. Road holding and ride comfort have been improved thanks to a stiffer bodysell, changes to the front suspension geometry, softer mountings for the rear trailing arms and re-tuned rear dampers.

"While the Mazda2 retains the original Zoom-Zoom driver appeal, our engineers have responded to media and owner feedback about our most popular model which accounts for 25 percent of Mazda sales in Britain. They have developed a revised rear suspension which provides superior ride comfort while also making the rear of the car feel more planted on the tarmac, even on the bumpiest of UK roads," comments Mark Cameron, Sales Director, Mazda UK.

"Making the 'special' Tamura model a permanent addition to the line-up gives consumers a high-value variant with a sporty flavour beneath the regular, fully specified Sport models," adds Cameron.

"The new automatic 'Mazda2 Activematic' is certain to expand the appeal of our smallest car. Changing traffic conditions and advances in automatic gearbox technology are steadily increasing the attraction of this kind of transmission and we expect our latest model to account for around eight percent of Mazda2 sales in 2011," concludes Cameron.

For the upgraded Mazda2's powertrain line-up, the three petrol engines have been re-tuned to Euro Stage 5 whilst the five-speed manual transmission's gearing has been revised – by between 7.7 and 5.7

percent across the 2nd-to-5th ratios – to save fuel. These changes achieve significantly improved fuel economy (by up to 2 percent) and reduced CO2 emissions (by up to 4.8 percent).

For both the low and high power 1.3 engines, the CO2 output has been cut from 125 to 119g/km – meaning that five petrol Mazda2 cars now have a rating under 120g/km and move to the lower tax 'C' band, while the diesel model moves down to band 'B', so six models qualify for £0 Road Tax first-year rate and reduced Benefit in Kind costs, offering users significant savings.

In their latest forms, the 1.3-litre engine is available in two power outputs (75ps and 84ps) and the 1.5-litre generates 102ps, while the 1.6-litre turbo-diesel now produces 95ps – a 5.5 percent increase. The Mazda2 TS2 Activematic, which is priced at £12,060, combines the powerful 1.5-litre petrol engine from the Sport version with the Mazda four-speed automatic transmission.

Top speeds range from 104-to-115mph and acceleration times from 0-to-62mph are between 10.7 and 14.9 seconds – depending on model. Fuel economy varies between 44.8 and 67.3mpg (combined cycle), while CO2 ratings spread from 110 to 146g/km.

Prices for the regular Mazda2 range start at £9,995 (on-the-road), with TS2 models beginning at £10,820, the new Tamura at £11,520 and Sport models from £12,630. A choice of nine exterior colours is available, with Brilliant Black (£260) and seven mica or metallic finishes (£410) as options.

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

BIG TWO SAFELY THROUGH

Beaminster and Lyme into county quarters

TOMMY TABBERER CUP

Round One
Beaminster Res 2 Dowlish & Don 1
TWO goals from Beaminster Reserves' Josh Hunter ended Dowlish & Donyatt's reign as Tommy Tabberer Cup holders at the Memorial Ground.

Hunter put the Rainbows ahead early on but Dowlish were level before the interval. The winner came 15 minutes from time when the striker moved into double figures for the season with a stylish half-volley into the roof of the visitors' net.

Beaminster FC are holding a race night at The Red Lion, Beaminster on Friday, November 26th. First race is 8pm, Race card is £3 (includes light supper.)

UPLYME 3 Pymore 2

UPLYME, winners in 2002-03, will be Beaminster's opponents in the quarter-final at Venlake scheduled for January 8th.

Star of the show for the Swallows in their 3-2 win over Pymore was hard-working midfielder James Beddows who scored twice, one a rasping 35-yarder that pitched off the turf and deceived Pymore 'keeper Charlie Youngs. The other goal came from top scorer Alex Cottle, his 12th of the campaign.

Cameron Murless and Leigh Dowle netted for the visitors who were reduced to 10 men when referee Ali Francis red carded Phil Ackerman for foul and abusive language.

Top performers for the hosts were Cottle and goalkeeper Lloyd Cleal.

◆ Full quarter-final draw; Hinton v Shepton Beauchamp, Crewkerne

Rangers v Hawkchurch, Forton Rangers Reserves v Chard Rangers, Uplyme v Beaminster Reserves.

JOHN FOWLER CUP - Quarter-Finals

Luso-Chard 2 Millwey Rise Res 1
A DANNY Larcombe goal couldn't save a spirited Millwey Rise Reserves side from sliding out of the cup at Forton when league top-scorer Marco Quedas took his tally to 21 with a double for Luso-Chard.

DORSET INTERMEDIATE CUP

Round Two
Allendale 2 Beaminster 4

BEAMINSTER survived a mid-match dip to see off Bournemouth League Division One high fliers Allendale at the Redcots Recreation Ground in Wimborne.

Despite missing regulars Dan Taylor, James Ridd, Murray Legg, Will Allen and Chris Park, The Rainbows stormed into an early 2-0 lead courtesy of strikes from Dave Penn, a long range piledriver, and Dean Newman.

But an offside trap that misfired allowed the hosts back into the game just before the break. And, after Sam Crocker squandered a golden chance with a one-on-one opportunity, another defensive error after the restart saw the Beaminster lead wiped out.

However Sean Annetts' troops collected themselves and showed the kind of form that has brought six wins from their last seven outings and Penn and Newman both scored again to set up a quarter-final tie at either Dorchester Sports or Ferndown

Sports on December 11th.

Merley Cobham Sports 1 Lyme Regis 4

A ROUTINE 4-1 win at Broadstone against Merley Cobham Sports means Lyme Regis will join their West Dorset neighbours Beaminster in the last eight.

Despite the Seasiders dominating for large periods of the game they couldn't convert a host of first-half opportunities, Joe Bond in particular guilty of squandering two great chances.

It didn't take long after the restart for Lyme to finally break down a lack luster opposition and Man-of-the-Match Rob Thomson netted the opener.

This gave the visitors the confidence to go in search of number two. But they were caught by a sucker-punch on the break and Merley leveled totally against the run of play.

This prompted Seasiders' manager Robin Townsend to ring the changes and introduce Jason Hawker up front and Dave Robinson in central midfield. And the changes paid immediate dividends as it was Robinson who, with his first touch, restored the lead by rounding off a neat move involving Mark Bailey and Julien Simier.

The goal looked to have signaled an avalanche but the home keeper denied Adam Caddy and Bailey with fine saves.

But it couldn't last and top scorer Simier converted Thomson's low cross with a crisp finish in the bottom corner and added a fourth late on for his 12th of the season.

Lyme secretary Rob Thom thought a double figure score line would have been a fair reflection of the Seasiders' dominance.

Lyme have been drawn away to either Alderholt in the quarter-final.

DORSET MINOR CUP - Round Two

Dorchester Castle 6 Drimpton 2

GOALS from Joe Gawinski and George Tuck from exiting at the second round of the Minor Cup as they failed to scale the battlements and were beaten 6-2 at Dorchester Castle.

Shaftesbury A 2 Waytown Hounds 1

A 2-1 DEFEAT on the immaculate Hardings Lane pitch saw Waytown Hounds slide out of the Minor Cup – so ending the PSDLs involvement in the tournament.

The Hounds felt aggrieved to have conceded the opener in the 20th minute, "Our keeper Danny Dunford was definitely pushed over in the build up" said Hounds' manager Mark Hughes. A penalty saw the hosts head into the break 2-0 in front.

The visitors had a sniff of a chance when Ed Stephenson was hauled down 20 minutes from time and Matt Read netted his eighth of the season from the resulting spot-kick, but Shaftesbury held on.

Hughes' pick-of-the-hounds were Dunford and centre-back Dan Hallett.

PREMIER

Ilminster Reserves 1 Barrington 0

Paul Hardy's first goal of the season strike was enough to earn the Blues all three points and add to the mounting pressure on Barrington who are now without a win in six.

DIVISION ONE

Forton Rangers 1 Millwey Rise 5

A MARC Jenkins second-half hat-trick formed the backbone of Millwey Rise' impressive 5-1 win at Forton Rangers.

The East Devon side came from behind to extend their unbeaten league run to 28 games.

Norton Athletic 2 Netherbury 3

NETHERBURY went into Saturday's game with both Tim and Phil Hussey nursing hamstring injuries and far from fully fit.

But Phil had his shooting boots on in the first 10 minutes scoring twice to set up the victory and an early league double.

The Nords did pull a goal back before the interval but Tim Hussey restored the two goal cushion and a late second from the hosts was a mere consolation.

Thorncombe 2 Charmouth 0

MANAGERLESS Charmouth slumped to their 14th successive defeat at the hands of ex-manager Tommy O'Hare's new club Thorncombe.

Despite the defeat caretaker manager Nick Pomeroy was impressed by his back three of Simon Smyth, Elliott Beazer and Matt Dare.

He said: "With four 16-year olds I couldn't ask for more. I put the blame for most of our defeats this season on the lack of commitment from the more experienced players.

The team needs a lot more from them."

DIVISION TWO

Hinton 2 Hawkchurch Utd 3

A LATE double from Glenn Harding saw Hawkchurch stage a gutsy fight back from 3-0 down but ultimately fall to their third consecutive defeat on their travels.

DIVISION FOUR

Hawkchurch Res 0 Hinton Res 4

HAWKCHURCH Reserves had few complaints as they were beaten 4-0 by in-form Hinton who recored their sixth straight win. Top Hawk was Dave Mayo.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Impressive win

SEATON U10 2 LYME REGIS U10 3

LYME Regis gained revenge for a 3-0 defeat in the reverse fixture a month ago with an impressive 3-2 win on slope at Seaton school.

The hosts took an early lead but the Seasiders responded immediately scoring twice within five minutes. Daley Holmes levelled with a crisp finish and Josh Caines link with Homes who crossed for Toby Barnes to head into the roof of the net at the far post.

The lead was extended midway through the second-half when Ben Prosser's corner kick deceived the home 'keeper.

Seaton set up a nervy last two minutes by reducing the arrears but Lyme held on for a well-deserved win with goalkeeper Tom Gillespie taking manager Rodney Holmes MoM award.

WEST DORSET FOOTBALL

WITH STUART BROOM

STERLING PERFORMANCE BLUNTS DARTS

Magpies throw it away

DORCHESTER TOWN 1 MAIDENHEAD 2
Blue Square South - Att: 376

DORCHESTER will be kicking themselves that they didn't take the points against the Berkshire Magpies of Maidenhead United at a blustery Avenue Stadium on Tuesday.

The Dorset Magpies gifted their visitors two first half goals, and although they completely dominated the second period, as with Bishop's Stortford on Saturday they could not force a positive result.

Playing against a strong wind in the first half, Dorchester found themselves a goal down after on 97 secs when Ashley Smith scored direct from a corner, the ball swerving wickedly in over Simon Evans head into the top far corner.

The goal seemed to stop Dorchester in their tracks and they appeared shell shocked as going behind. Maidenhead took advantage of their hosts hesitancy and Smith who was causing most of the problems drove a diagonal shot straight at Evans, before another tantalising cross almost saw Critchell put through his own goal. He appeared to be deceived by the flight and only succeeded in nodding the ball over Evans, but Nathan Walker came to his rescue by heading the ball over the top from under his own cross-bar.

Dorchester thought they had equalised on 29 minutes when Ryan Moss forced the ball home after Walker had headed Nick Crittenden corner goalwards, but the referee blew on the advice of his assistant for a foul by the centre back.

Two minutes later they should have been ahead when Maidenhead's captain Mark Nisbet misjudged a header and the ball dropped to Ings, but he snatched at the opportunity and the ball sailed over the top.

With Dorchester's confidence rising they left the back door open a minute before the break and paid the penalty. Nicholls fed Keiron Knight with a diagonal ball and he slotted home through the legs of the advancing Evans.

With the wind at their backs in the second half Dorchester attacked from the off, and it was Maidenhead's gloveman Steve Williams that felt the force of it and he fumbled Crittenden's free-kick at the far post.

The host's pressure eventually brought dividends on 54 minutes when Moss cleverly stepped over Critchell's low cross for Ings to provide a clinical finish.

Williams then came to Maidenhead's rescue just after the hour when he beat away Moss's shot, whose follow up volley went just wide of the post. Gary Bowles then sent a looping header just wide of the right hand post.

Dorchester were then denied a cast iron penalty on 71 minutes when Behzadi blatantly downed Ings but referee Iain Parsons turned it down.

Williams produced the save of the night when he tipped Ings flying header from Crittenden's measured cross on to the post and behind for a corner.

The referee failed to stamp out Maidenhead's playacting at feigning injury and only added half of the eight minutes of stoppage time in the second-half.

Manager Ashley Vickers was bitterly disappointed after the match by his team's failure to turn their second-half superiority into a victory, and also turned his wrath on the match officials.

Whilst he didn't blame Evans for the first goal because the wind had a part to play in it, he felt that he might have done better saying: "Simon has kept us in numerous games and has been excellent since coming into the side. He'll learn from it I'm sure."

On the second goal he added: "I couldn't have asked for any more from the lads in the second-half. Their keeper pulled off a couple of great saves, we missed some good chances and we had definite penalty turned down."

Vickers was spoken to by the referee in the second-half after an altercation with one of the assistants.

"I've only been doing this job five minutes and already I'm sick of officials. We had a goal ruled out where the linesman gave a foul against Nathan Walker from 30 metres away yet the ref was only five metres away; it beggars belief.

"I'm not abusive to officials but sometimes you just want an explanation, and the assistant turned his back on me when I asked him why he had made a decision."

DARTFORD 0 DORCHESTER TOWN 4
Blue Square South - Att: 1,105
Saturday, November 13th

THE MAGPIES produced a sterling performance at Princes Park on Saturday as they put the disappointment of their last two home games behind them to inflict their hosts first home defeat of the season in any competition.

Fresh from their FA Cup draw with npower Division Two league promotion hopefuls Port Vale and a 2-0 Blue Square Bet South league victory at Dover in midweek, the hosts would have been forgiven for thinking that the result was a mere formality.

However Dorchester produced the biggest away win in five years with a breathtaking second half performance.

In a fairly even first half both sides produced possible chances without really threatening the opposition glovemen.

Charlie Sheringham fired across Simon Evans' goal on the half hour before Kyle Critchell almost got on the end of Nick Crittenden's corner. Then on the stroke of half-time Lee Burns couldn't quite direct his header from Nick Champion's inswinging right wing cross on goal.

The game continued in the same vein in at the start of the second half but changed in the 65th minute when a sweeping move out of defence found Steve Devlin wide on the left. His deep cross was headed away to Crittenden whose 15-yard shot was superbly palmed away by keeper Andy Young, only for Ryan Moss running in from the left to thunder his volley high into the net from the narrowest of angles.

The goal stunned Dartford and before they had time to regroup they were two down. Mark Jermyn broke up a home attack with a long ball upfield which was picked up by Danny Ings on the left. His surging run took him to the byline before he cut the ball back to his skipper who had run the length of the field to sidefoot the ball home at pace.

With Dartford pushing to get back into the games Ings set up Devlin whose stunning drive whistle past the upright.

Dartford's best effort of the night came five minutes before the end when sub James White's attempted chip required Evan's to reach high to tip over the bar.

Dorchester sealed the match with two further goals in the final minutes. Two minutes from the end Ings drew the defence before setting up Crittenden to crash home his shot from the edge of the box.

Then in added time Moss rounded off a superb afternoon for the Magpies when he outran his marker down the left wing before cutting in and firing past a bemused Young from an acute angle.

Battling Terras stop the rot

Weymouth 0 Brackley Town 0
Zamaretto Premier - Att: 271

FOLLOWING two heavy Zamaretto Premier Division defeats, Weymouth were looking to at least ensure they did not get hit for a third time when they entertained fellow strugglers Brackley Town.

With midfielder Rob Wolleaston missing with a swollen knee manager Ian Hutchinson drafted in 34-year-old Mark Robinson at fullback to utilise his experience to shore up a creaking defence.

The plan worked as the Terras kept a clean sheet for only the fourth time in 16 league matches this season, but they also found it hard to breakdown the visiting defence, hardly mustering a shot themselves throughout the ninety minutes.

Brackley were themselves looking to arrest a slide in form that had seen them take only one point from their last five games that has seen them slip down the table.

As a result both sides were tentative and it was 14 minutes before either side had an effort on goal, Matt Wright just failing reach Matteo King's volley across goal.

Terras keeper Tom Manley then thwarted Brackley twice; saving from Alfie Taylor and then palming away Jason Bradley's fine effort; before Ben Gerring headed wide as Weymouth looked to close the gap on the rest of their opponents at the bottom of the league.

Brackley increased the pressure after the break and Francis Green should have given them the lead soon after the restart but shot wide after being released behind the Weymouth rearguard, before Manley easily held Green's header from a corner.

Gutsy late show earns Terras point

WEYMOUTH 3 CHIPPENHAM TOWN 3
Zamaretto Premier - Att: 485
Saturday, November 13th

A REMARKABLE late fight back by Weymouth earned them a point in a match they had looked losing as the match went into added time.

Despite having hit the woodwork three times it looked like the Terras would suffer their first home defeat in six games as they trailed 3-1 but goals from sub Sam Charles and Ben Gerring gave the battling hosts a point they deserved for their tenacity.

They might have snatched all three points with the last attack of the game when Charles drove his shot just wide of the post.

Chippenham having been badly beaten in midweek by Truro City were looking to bounce back quickly, and saw rock bottom Weymouth as the way back, particularly as the Terras had played less than 48 hours earlier.

However it was the hosts that started better with Richard Groves going close before Matteo King did likewise before a mistake from Rob Wolleaston led to Chippenham taking the lead. Caught in possession, the ball was fed to Lewis Powell who drove his shot home.

Weymouth responded immediately with Gerring heading Groves free kick against the crossbar before another Groves cross was headed home by Warren Byerley.

Groves might have given the Terras the lead before the break when Groves shot rebounded off the post to Bradley Magookin but he shot wide from close in.

It proved costly as Alan Griffin put the visitors ahead immediately after the interval when he scored with a 30-yard effort.

Weymouth once again raised their game and struck the woodwork for the third time when King hit the underside of the bar, but it looked as if they were heading for defeat when Ashley Williams scored a third on 72 minutes.

The game became heated as time went on and both Chippenham's Griffin and Nathan Rudge, and the Terras Gerring were lucky to be still on the field at the end.

Charles, who has made a name for himself as a super-sub did it again. Ninety minutes was up as he raced through the Chippenham defence to neatly score past keeper Nick Thomas, then two minutes later Gerring completed an exceptional comeback when he turned to blast home Sam Clarke's nod down.

Late winner keeps run going

BRIDPORT 1 SHEPTON MALLETT 0*Toolstation Div One - Attendance: 103

AN own goal in the dying seconds of the match saw Bridport maintain their Toolstation Western League Division One promotion challenge, in a game that matched the cold, bitter tuesday evening.

Bridport were looking to do the double over their Somerset rivals having won 5-3 at Old Wells Road in early September, but a change of management and an influx of new players made Tuesday night's task much harder.

The Bees were without captain Mark Lock who had not recovered from a foot injury sustained in the win over Hengrove Athletic and Ryan Dovell who had to be replaced with a groin strain in the same match, but they welcomed back Jamie Symes after a two week absence whilst Gary Bulman was drafted in.

After a bright start in which Chris Clarke forced keeper Liam McFarlane into a fine save from his first minute diving header, chances became few and far between as Shepton showed they had learned how to defend since the first encounter.

McFarlane was called upon to claw away Darren Watt's shot a few minutes later whilst at the other end Jordan Yeo tested the Bees gloveman Sam Filkins with an effort he had to palm away.

Bridport produced more efforts at goal than their visitors but they did not amount to much. Chris Senior fired wide and then over the top whilst McFarlane dealt with an Adam Symes shot and a Watts cross shot that swirled in under the bar, before Adam Symes appeared to have wasted the Bees last opportunity by firing over.

Then in the third minute of added time Bridport were awarded a corner, and with eight plays camped in the visitors penalty box the ball dropped to Senior whose angled shot appeared to take a deflection off a Shepton defender on its way into goal.

Manager Trevor Senior will be pleased his side have registered a win without playing well, often the sign of a good side. Once again his defence, admirably marshalled by stand-in skipper Ryan Hayter, once more kept a clean sheet, but he will be hoping his forwards find more firepower for Saturday's league trip to Almondsbury UWE.

Cup holders crash out

Bridport Res 1 Okeford Utd 2

CUP holders Bridport Reserves were unceremoniously dumped out of the Dorset Senior Trophy as Dorset Senior League One leaders Okeford United held their nerve and defended superbly to pull off a cup surprise at St Mary's Field.

"We were beaten by the better side on the day," said a very disappointed joint manager Steve Crabb.

"We have backed the player's week in, week out, but it is evident after this showing that we need to make changes to freshen things up. We were flat all the game and overall we did not deserve a win."

Bridport started the better but it was the visitors who took the lead midway through the first half with a blistering volley from 20 yards that gave Lee Cleal no chance.

However Tristan Gale equalised ten minutes later and the Bees started to get on top. They held the ascendancy until the hour mark without really creating too much before Okeford regained the lead.

Bridport's frustration grew as they strove to get back level and several players were booked and Jamie Fry sent-off as Okeford defended superbly to hold on for victory.

Thirds have to do it all again

The Balti House 3 Bridport 3ds 3 (aet)

A YOUNG Bridport 3rds fought out an exciting draw in this Dorset Intermediate Cup second round tie. With several regulars cup-tied joint manager Jason Forbes drafted in a number of younger fringe players, all of whom were a credit to the team.

The match will have to be replayed at Bridport next week after the two sides could not be separated after extra time.

Bridport having been beaten 4-3 in the league at home just two weeks ago, started the better and went ahead when Ali Kamara latched on to a long ball out of defence to lob advancing keeper Andy Nott.

Bridport held the lead until 65 minutes when the hosts equalised, who then took the lead ten minutes from time when the Bees were slow to react to a throw-in allowing Balti to score from the loose ball.

However Bridport responded immediately from the restart when Colin Paull slid in to convert Steve Battrick's corner that was helped on by Lee Neal.

Chris Gale produced a good finish to put the Bees ahead in the second minute of extra-time, but Balti equalised again ten minutes from the end to send it to a replay.

Forbes said: "It was a good game that opened up towards the end as both teams tired. I was very pleased with the younger players that came in, especially 17-year-old Sam Beavis who has never played centre-back before but was excellent, and with James Bird formed a formidable pair.

Poole Town Wessex Colts 3 Bridport U15 5
BRIDPORT U15s notched up their fifth successive league win at current league leaders Poole Town Wessex Colts to maintain their unblemished start to the season.

Poole took the lead with a goal after five minutes which Bridport claimed was offside after Bridport's keeper David Persey had saved the initial shot, and minutes later added another.

The young Bees picked themselves up and started to turn the Poole tide and stamp their authority on the game, and on 15 minutes their new found confidence paid dividends when after persistent pressure and neat interplay captain Levi Gale broke through the Poole defence to coolly slot the ball past the advancing goalkeeper. Striker Jordan Daniels levelled the scores minutes later with a fine solo effort which saw him convert from the narrowest of angles.

Bridport, now in the ascendancy went close on a several occasions particularly Kieran Mason before well worked goals from Conal Judd-English and Jordan Daniels before the interval ensured that the score line accurately reflected Bridport's resurgence.

Bridport dominated the second half with their defence rarely troubled and man-of-the-match Gale added a fifth.

Poole scored a consolation late on after a defensive mix-up.

STURM MARSHALL 3 BRIDPORT U13 5

BRIDPORT came back from 1-3 down to win 5-3 on a soggy afternoon in Sturminster. They did not perform in the first half and were 1-2 behind at the break; Liam Sayers scoring the goal, side footing home a through ball from Lewis Middleton.

They were a different team in the second period with Middleton and Rhys Hayter dominating the midfield, and Matthew Ward and Dylan Allen also having much better games as they prevented the home team's long ball tactic.

Sayers who combined with Caine Lydon, a second half substitute, with great effect down the right side, was superb and involved in all four goals. He crossed for Jon Paul Avery to head home a brilliant second, who then pounced on a loose ball to fire into the top corner for the equaliser.

Owen Ward smashed the ball in off the underside of the cross bar by to take the lead from a drilled cross from Sayers who capped off a man of the match performance when he rounded two players and unleashed a 25-yard screamer in the roof of the net to finish the game.

SPEEDWAY

Wildcats forced out - closure a relief for Bartlett

WEYMOUTH WILDCATS were forced into closure earlier this week in a dramatic turn of events when the British Speedway Promoters' Association (BSPA) dissolved the club and the landlord repossessed the stadium.

Monday's decision has come as a blow to both Wildcats fans and its chairman Phil Bartlett who after months of uncertainty had found a buyer, although he is also relieved at the decision.

On hearing the news he said: "It's a relief to learn from the stadium owners Wessex Delivery that they have today taken the stadium back into their own hands which I agreed, due to non payment. I will be collecting my personal belongings at a later stage.

"It's a great shame as I had a buyer in place and received confirmation from my solicitor last weekend that there was an undertaking to take on all the existing liabilities and to clear all outstanding monies. The club was set to be taken forward, but this will now not be the case."

He was also angry at the way the BSPA had acted. "It's a great shame that the BSPA have also stepped in and annulled Weymouth Speedway as well. The licence returns to the BSPA along with the clubs riding assets.

This is for non-payment to the BSPA despite the fact that they have owed me money for two years, whereas I owe them six months money.

"I can now quite clearly concentrate on my family life and business and actually have a holiday in the summer like most normal working people.

Also not having to arrange a meeting on a weekly basis for it to be unsustainable with insufficient people in attendance is a great relief.

Despite the promotions that the club has done and winning the league in 2008 Weymouth Speedway has always made a loss.

"I think it's a fantastic sport and I wish any prospective person who looks to take the club over and negotiates with the stadium owner and the BSPA all the luck in the world, but speedway in Weymouth is unsustainable in the current climate and format that speedway runs."

Training session dates booked through the off season have obviously now been cancelled.

Rallying duo get set for the big one

LOCAL rallying duo driver Rex Ireland and navigator Adrian Scadding are getting tuned up for the biggest UK rally of the season; the Roger Albert Clark Rally 2010.

Named after one of Britain's most famous and successful rally drivers, this is the seventh running of the event that re-creates the RAC Rallies of the 1960s and 1970s.

The event takes place over four days next week starting on Friday November 26th at Pickering in North Yorkshire and takes in some of the most breathtaking scenery in the North Yorkshire Moors National Park during the evening and the next day Saturday.

They then switch to Carlisle and tackle some of the best rallying country around Dumfries in the Scottish Borders on Sunday, before pitting their wits on Monday in the notorious Kielder Forest Challenge in the Northumberland National Park.

The rally covers 170 miles of roads ensuring the competitors face some of the best rallying challenges in the UK.

Rex and Adrian will be competing in their 1600cc Mk1 Escort in the C2 Class along with almost 70 other teams including top international rally star and former British Rally Champion Gwyndaf Evans.

Adrian said: "We are both looking forward to this; it is the biggest race of our lives, and something every rally driver should do if possible once in his life.

Hopefully the car is in good nick. It will be an endurance race for us being twice as long as anything we have done before, and so to finish will be an achievement."

Rumble Dumble aids charities

DONATIONS to several charities were made by the Royal Manor of Portland Athletic Club at their recent presentation evening as a result of the Dumble Bimble and Portland 10 races earlier this year.

A cheque for £1,025 was presented to Caroline Nickinson of the Weldmar Hospice Trust as a result of the Dumble Bimble Fun Run that took place in September.

Club spokesman Paul Warrell said: "This impressive amount exceeds monies raised in previous years and was made possible through the hard work and commitment of many people. Thank you and well done to those who completed this year's Dumble Bimble race, particularly to runners who obtained sponsorship for such a worthy cause. The race could not have taken place without those who supported the event, assisted on the night and who donated prizes for the raffle."

Proceeds from this year's Portland 10 which took place in July were also presented to St John Ambulance, Wyke Regis Rangers, Portland United Football Club, Portland Youth Centre and Portland Coast Watch.

Mr Warrell added: "Finally, a special mention must be given to St John Ambulance who attend and support all of our races."

Royal Manor of Portland Athletics Club was founded in 1983 and caters for all ages and abilities. The club is affiliated with UK Athletics and has in excess of 80 members who meet up to 3 times per week.

Chidzoy bags double

WEST Bay Sea Angling Club's Dave Chidzoy bagged a double when he won both the Andy Neal Rover, fishing at Abbotsbury where nine cod were caught, and a few days later won the Thursday night fish at the same venue. The Andy Neal Rover saw him win with a haul of fish in excess of 10kg whilst dogfish, cod and seven whiting won him the Thursday night competition involving sixteen members who fished a rising tide with high tide at 2230. Despite the fish being patchy with whiting most abundant, everyone caught something.

A flat, calm and clear sea saw a number of garfish caught in the first Saturday Junior fish of which Ellis McCullagh caught five which helped him win the match. All six members and two visitors caught fish which included rockling, shanny, pout, sea scorpion, flounder, whiting, wrasse, garfish and Pollack.

In the second two weeks later Adam Chudley went two places better this time to win the last Saturday Junior of the season. The weather was sunny with some cloud and a south-westerly 5 wind whilst the sea was rough and dirty.

Thirteen members turned out to fish the Sunday Daytime match on a mostly falling tide won by P J Wheeler with atotal haul of 3k 135g of fish. The competitors managed to catch seven different species between them. Plenty of garfish and mackerel were caught as well as a few flatfish but alas no cod. The gar and mackerel were caught by using either a float or a pop up rig. October 16th Saturday Juniors East Pier West Bay 1200-1500.

LOCAL ENDURANCE RIDER FINISHES SEASON WITH FOREIGN SUCCESS

LOCAL endurance rider Kirsty Wiscombe of Yawl has fought her way back to fitness after spending weeks in hospital last year to top the FEI worldwide rankings.

Her homebred seven-year-old stallion Yawl Hill-billy has just finished in 5th place at the tough, hilly, 130km FEI 2 star Mirwart ride in the Belgium Ardennes near the Luxembourg border.

"Billy has had a great season of international rides the longest being 161km in a day at Euston Park in Norfolk and these results mean that Kirsty and Billy have now qualified for next year's European Championships in Florac, France and are the highest placed GB combination in 64th place.

Kirsty's other horse, 10-year-old Eska has also had similar success and finished 13th in the flat fast 120km FEI 2-star ride in Tessenderlo in Belgium and also did a 161km ride this season.

Eska is at present 69th in the world horse rankings. The two horses results combined mean that Kirsty is now ranked 43rd in the FEI World Open Endurance Rider Rankings.

Kirsty now has two horses on British Endurance Elite Squad and is aiming at being on the team for the Europeans next September where they will hopefully bring home a medal.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Mitchell sparks win

DORCHESTER were the only local side to play at home on Saturday last. They entertained Devizes. Weymouth took the road to Bournemouth, while I took the weekend off and ventured to Twickenham to see just how well England would cope with the spring heeled Australian back division. (In fact England coped rather well and ended the day worthy winners, after as exciting a game as I have seen for a very long time).

All was not sweetness and light on the local front however. BRIDPORT could not raise a side to travel to Salisbury and had to concede. Their second side too had to hand a walk-over to visitors Salisbury seconds for, although the game did take place, it was just a friendly, with the visitors coming out on top by 26-19.

BOURNEMOUTH 3rd 17pts

WEYMOUTH 47pts

THE Weymouth side showed what was probably their best form of the season in beating their opponents comprehensively. At first things did not go altogether to plan, with debutant centre, Tom Bell losing his way and arriving later than scheduled.

In fact Weymouth played for the first few minutes with just 14 bodies on the pitch and fell behind to an unconverted try during this period. Bell confirmed the wisdom of his selection subsequently however and his side began to take control. They were soon into the lead and in fact led 14-5 at the halfway stage before really stretching away after the change round.

Having scored two tries before the oranges, they scored five more after. Bell marked his debut with a touchdown. Influential number eight Julian Quick crossed the whitewash on no less than four occasions, Andy Wood got over, as did Ryan Lewendon, and Tim Peplow completed the points tally by kicking six conversions. In fact, such was their dominance that the Weymouth side took their foot of the accelerator pedal in the final few minutes, and Bournemouth, who had never stopped competing in the face of the onslaught, sneaked in for a couple of late tries, one of which they converted, by way of consolation.

Sadly there were one or two concessions handed out on Saturday last. Weymouth were one of the beneficiaries, with the Lytchett Minster second side not being able to travel.

DORCHESTER 34pts DEVIZES 13pts

THIS was a game of two halves as our soccer cousins would have said.

Although the home side took an early lead via the boot of Bament, who kicked a penalty goal after Devizes had infringed while attempting to stop what was, in essence, the first home attack of the game, they subsequently fell foul of the visitors' disruptions, and found it difficult to win any useable possession. This of course was the method used by Devizes to put Dorchester out of the Senior Vase competition a couple of weeks ago, and it worked, for the first-half anyway.

During that time they took the lead via a brace of penalties and, on the half hour, home frustrations boiled over and Hunt was binned for being overly physical at a ruck.

Soon after his departure however, Dorchester won a penalty inside the Devizes twenty two, opted for the scrummage and shoved their opponents back, thus tying in their back row. They then released and winger Morgan scuttled over in the corner.

Although Dorchester now led 8-6, all was not done in the half for, just before the end, Bament saw yellow, thus reducing the home side to 13.

They held on until the break however, and the second period differed completely from the first. They assumed the ascendancy, and moreover turned pressure into points.

First it was number eight Mitchell who drove over from a lineup close in; then Bament, fresh from the bin, finished a flowing move in which both forwards and backs joined, and then Hodgson, making his first appearance of the season, signalled his return with a touch down. Bament added the extras to all three tries and Dorchester were 'away and clear' at 29-6 ahead with ten minutes left for play.

Replacement winger Pryce then completed his side's scoring by sneaking in at the corner for an unconverted effort and although the Devizes handy back three engineered a converted try at the last, it was nothing really more than a consolation for the successful conversion was the final kick of the game, leaving Dorchester worthy winners in view of their second-half performance.

The Dorchester second side also came out on top. They visited Puddletown and won 15-5. The thirds however could not raise a side to travel to Wincanton.

Autumn gold for Jean

Weymouth Golf Club Ladies Section

IT WAS a golden autumn for Jean Vile as she won the Smale Cup for the second year running on a count back from Gill Corben. The competition is an end of season stroke play played in October for all April to September medal winners.

Monica Barter won the Vice-Captain's competition at Lyme Regis which means that next year it will be held at Weymouth.

The last three seasons 'Friendlies' were played in October, with Weymouth winning two and sharing the spoils in the third.

They beat visitors Chedington Court 2½-1½ before travelling to Bridport where they recorded and excellent 3½-½ victory. They finished with a draw at Wareham.

This reflected a very successful end to a good season, and thanks go to the many ladies who participated this year and to Monica Barter for organising the matches. Margaret Allen and Jane Harries attended the County AGM held at Ferndown Golf Club. Whilst the club had no prize winners this year, Jane did collect 2's money from the Autumn Meet and Pam McCaughey won a coach voucher for £100 in the Centenary Raffle.

Bridport U16 24 Bournemouth 0

BRIDPORT ran out winners by four tries to nil over a strong Bournemouth side.

Bridport's handling was more secure in the wet conditions with the visitors giving up some promising positions by losing the ball forwards in the tackle.

The home side's scrum was dominant throughout the game and the forwards pushed hard in all the rucks, often turning winning possession. They scored two tries in each half, their first run in by Will Haggerty after a good move with dummy runners in the centre and the second when scrum-half Nat Halkes-Wellstead darted through from a five-metre scrum.

Bournemouth fought back in the second-half, throwing the ball about and stretching Bridport, but the home side coped well and turned the ball over in contact on several occasions.

With 10 minutes to play, the Blues forced a five metre and then pressured the visitors. When the ball came out the side, Eli Halkes-Wellstead dived over to score.

With time almost up, the visitors stole ball from a Bridport line-out but the pass was intercepted by Haggerty who ran in from halfway. Tom White converted two of the four tries.

New bowlers always welcome

THE large indoor bowls clubs in Weymouth and Dorchester are well known. There are however several smaller but very active indoor short mat bowls clubs in the locality which play a significant part in their local communities and are highly valued by their members.

One such club is Southill Short Mat Bowls Club who is holding an open afternoon on Sunday November 21st from 2pm to 5pm at the Southill Community Centre.

Parking is freely available close to the Community Centre and refreshments will be available. This is an opportunity to find out more about this sporting activity which can provide good exercise, good company and will cost you little more than the price of a cup of tea per session.

Members usually attend one or more of the regular sessions on Monday afternoons and Wednesday afternoons and evenings, although it is not obligatory to attend each week.

For many the weekly game of bowls is an important part of the routine, especially for active retired people.

The regular evening session plus the fact that the West Dorset League games take place on an evening allow younger members to fully participate in the club.

Although many members live in Southill and Radipole the membership is drawn from across Weymouth. Some are relative newcomers and beginners while others are very experienced and of a standard to play for Dorset. Five represented the county in the recent win against Oxfordshire.

The club has two teams who play in the West Dorset League; the Mariners who were runners-up last season, and the Seadogs who are both very competitive. In addition there are numerous meetings, competitions and social activities. Absolute beginners are certainly welcome.

BEAMINSTER FIND THEIR GOAL TOUCH

Poole 1 Beaminster 4

BEAMINSTER put last week's lacklustre performance behind them by slamming four second half goals to record their second victory of the season.

Goal less at the break doubles from Freya Crawford and Becky Early saw them coast home. Lack of goals has seen Beaminster fail to convert their superiority into victories in a number of matches this season, and so it was good that they finally took their opportunities.

In an even first half both sides had periods of pressure and possession but were unable to convert their chances.

However Beaminster came out much more composed in the second half and with better communication their passing improved and they took the lead midway through the half when Crawford converted a quick sideline move between Emma Davies and Danni Donovan. Early added a second soon after with a hard driven shot before scoring her second and Beaminster's third from a penalty flick after Davies was fouled in the D.

Player of the match Crawford then added a fourth when she picked up a rebound from a well worked short corner routine to drive the ball home. Poole picked up a late consolation goal.

Beaminster 2nd 1 Chard 2nd 1

Beaminster and Chard shared the spoils in a hard fought Kitson and Trotman friendly league game between two well matched teams on Sunday.

Beaminster had more possession in the first half, making several attacks on the opposition's D but some good keeping from the Chard goalie kept the ball out of the net.

At the other end Becki Craddock playing her first game in goal was not put under a great deal of pressure, but dealt with the one or two shots that got through the defence efficiently.

In the second half, Beaminster started the stronger team but Chard scored against the run of play. However Beaminster didn't let their heads drop and mounted attack after attack on the Chard area with some lovely runs down the right wing from player of the match Harriet Hughes.

They eventually had success when a quickly taken free hit from Emma Davies caught the visiting off guard, found Rachel Andrews having her second outing as striker, and she neatly slotted home.

Weymouth & District Table Tennis League

COLLITON A are amongst the early-season pacesetters at the top of the Weymouth & District League's first division and that owes much to their first class 23-17 triumph over leaders Springfield A at the Reynolds' Institute.

Ray Harwood led the way for the county town outfit with a maximum haul for the loss of just a single set which came towards the end of the night against wily veteran Gordon Bissett (4) who took the opening set before Harwood staged a comeback in a decent four-sets tussle.

Harwood was not without support though as the vastly improved Terry Whitworth continued to prove his worth with a hard-earned seven sets gleaned from an early three-sets win over Gordon Bissett before picking up four more in two mammoth five-setters with Jon Bissett (6) and Andy Millar (playing up two divisions) that both went the way of the home side 11-6 and 11-9 in the fifth respectively.

Eric Horniblow (5) also competed well, especially in a four-sets win over Millar (17-15 in the fourth) throughout a fine team performance that ended in a magnificent doubles scrap between Whitworth & Harwood and Gordon Bissett & Millar - the hosts gaining consolation from a 3-2 victory that ended 19-17 in the decider.

In the second tier St. Osmunds' Sharks were involved in two of the best games of the month as they twice won by the slenderest of margins (20-18) against both Colliton B and Preston A at the Dorchester school.

Sam Roles' nine-sets singles contribution, coupled with a 3-1 doubles triumph alongside Mark Thomas (8), proved pivotal against Colliton, while it was Thomas who top-scored with a maximum against Preston where a thrilling five-sets triumph over Paul Beeston (8) in the eighth rubber kept his side in control.

Division One: Springfield A 17 Colliton A 23, Colliton A 15 Red Triangle 21, Crusaders 23 CSA 14, ASA 13 Springfield A 21, CSA 14 Colliton A 24, Shipton A 24 YMCA 14, CSA 28 CSB 8.

Division Two: Pilgrims 17 DYS A 23, Springfield B 20 Shipton C 13, Colliton B 22 Springfield C 17, Sharks 20 Preston A 18, Shipton C 22 Pilgrims 16, Springfield C 24 Sharks 8, Shipton B 12 Springfield B 20, Sharks 20 Colliton B 18, DYS A 20 Springfield B 17.

Division Three: DYS B 18 Budmouth B 20, CSC 18 Hawks 16, Budmouth B 19 Springfield & Sons 12, Colliton C 24 Lions 15, Hawks 26 Preston C 13, Preston B 18 DYS B 15, DYS B 4 Hawks 29, Preston C 20 CSC 17.

Another treble for Shipton Gorge

DivisionOne - Wyke A 15 Shipton Gorge A 25: With Richard Trim injured Eddy Buck repaid the faith in his inclusion by picking up eight points from two wins and a 2-3 defeat.

Chris Glover, after dropping his first game to Steve White did not concede another and put Shipton into a very handy position. By contrast skipper Gil Roberts had a rare off night but still managed to graft five points and then combined with Buck to take the doubles 3-2.

Division Two - Colliton B 13 Shipton Gorge B 27: Ron Tucknott inspired his team to a convincing victory with a nine point maximum and placed them in contention for a promotion spot.

He was well supported by Bruce Beale (8 pts) and Jim Saunders (7 pts) who then combined to take the doubles 3-1.

Shipton Gorge C 23 St. Osmunds Sharks 14: After taking two points from a 2-3 loss to Jack Bell, Colin Davis struggled to make any further impact and must have been relieved to see Peter Billingham and Eddy Buck make their experience count with nine point maximums. They also combined to win the doubles 3-0.

The Sharks are a young and improving side that impressed with both their skill and attitude, and are likely to win more games than they lose.

Clinker Shield

THE Following teams have been invited to contest the prestigious Clinker Shield sports quiz to be held at the Symene Sports Club this Sunday November 21st.

The event, now in its 27th year is one of the most coveted titles of its kind, and includes some of the most knowledgeable sports quiz experts in Dorset amongst the teams.

Former champion Harry Harrison said: "I was part of the trio that won it the first time in 1984, and it has gone from strength to strength since then. The competition is really strong and it is an excellent night out."

Nick Skyrme is the question master for the second year, and the event starts promptly at 7.15pm.

Teams: Bradpole Club, The Mystics, Chelsea Savage, Bridport Rugby Club, SamEd + 1, Jack Tars Trio, Snorklers, Chickadee Vets, Bridport Football Club, Melpash Cricket, Wattig Winkers, Broom's Bald Eagles, BriPhilPinkey, Bridport Golf Club, Balsy's 3, Campbell's Soup, Beaminster Social Club, Mac's Masterminds.

INSIDE: Weymouth Wildcats forced to close

'Not a million miles away'

WHEN you think you have recovered having put three wins together on the bounce and then suffer two horrific hammerings, it is hard to become too optimistic following two draws that once again stops the rot.

Terras manager Ian Hutchinson is therefore wary of any question that suggests his side has turned the corner.

"The point against Brackley Town was well deserved in horrendous conditions, and the comeback against Chippenham Town shows the lads tenacity and desire," he said.

"I think, looking on the positive side, that some people forget that we are now unbeaten at home in our last six matches which is a good starting point.

"Thursday's match was very difficult for both sides given the conditions, and therefore going into Saturday's match the lads might have felt jaded mentally. However physically they picked themselves up and to come back from 3-1 down in the dying minutes was excellent.

It was a great finale to the match for the fans to cheer. They haven't had a lot to smile about this season, but have been tremendously loyal and hopefully it will bring them back again next week.

BY STUART BROOM

"Everyone has to remember that we do not have a big budget, but what we have are honest lads giving it their all. We must expect blips from time to time as they learn from their mistakes.

At present we have some consistent home form, but we know there will be blips; it's not going to happen week in week out without some problems along the way.

"People have to remember this is about the team and not the politics that is going on around us.

The football seems to get drowned out by other things, but we have a good bunch of lads here trying their best, and I think certainly at home people get their money's worth based on the circumstances.

"We are not a million miles away from becoming a good team but people must expect the warts along the way.

"We will always create chances. On Saturday we hit the woodwork three times, and we only need that bit of luck for one or two to go in and we could be away and running."

One player Hutch singled out was striker Warren Byerley.

"He's brilliant. He works his socks off and is great in the dressing room with the younger lads, and long may it continue."

Hutch also bemoaned the fact that because of wage restrictions most of the lads have day jobs and this sometimes affects availability. Talking before Tuesday's trip to Didcot Town he bemoaned the fact that experienced defender Mark Robinson would not be available.

"He can't get time off work to travel. This is a blow to us as he has been superb in the two games since I asked him to step up from the reserves. It might have not mattered as he is suffering from a dead leg from Saturday's match, but it is the kind of problem we have to deal with. It's no consolation but that the way it is."
